Phone Co. Rate Boost Given Commission OK

The Ohio Associated Telephone Co. has been granted authority by the Ohio Utilities Commission to establish a rate increase in its Marion district which comprisess some 25 exchanges in Marion and 9 other adjacent counties.

The rate increase, according to Vice President and General Manager Clare M. Williams, will go into effect as of the first bills issued after Nov. 15. Under the rotation billing system of the company, subscribers in some areas are billed on the 16th of the month and others as of the first of the month.

The rate increase was granted in an order by the commission Nov. 5, following a hearing held in Columbus Oct. 30 on the application of the company for a rate increase. No objections against the increase were raised at the hearing. The commission had previously granted similar increases in the company's Celina and Caldwell districts.

New rates as approved by the utilities commission are as follows: business phones, $6.50 per month, increase of $1; residential single party line, $3, increase of 50 cents; rural business phones, $3.50, an increase of 50 cents. Four party residential lines and business extensions are not included in the rate increase but residential extensions will go up from 50 to 75 cents.

55 Per Cent Affected

Of the total of 18,205 stations in the Marion district 10,239 or 55 per cent of the total will be affected by the increase with the remaining 7,866 stations representing 45 per cent of the total not being affected by the rate hike.

Mr. Williams said that approximately three quarters of local subscribers will not be affected by the increase, which for the most part will be borne by city and rural business phones.

Exchanges in Marion county are situated in Prospect, LaRue, Waldo, Morral and Green Camp. Other of the company exchanges in the Marion district are distributed throughout the following counties: Wyandot-Harpster, Nevada and Wharton; Hardin-Forest; Union - Richwood; Fairfield; Amanda; Hancock - Arlington, Jenera, Mt. Blanchard and Rawson; Seneca-Bettsville, Bloomville and Republic; Clark - Catawba; Sandusky-Gibsonburg and Helena; Madison-Plain City; Champaign-Mechanicsburg and Woodstock.

Other Communities Served

Other communities served by the district include Burgoon, Marseilles, New Bloomington, Mt. Cory, Tarleton and Unionville Center.

At the utility commission hearing, it was disclosed that the present rates provide a return of approximately 2.8 per cent on the Marion district valuation of $3,003,072, used as the base for determining the present return. The company testified at the hearing that because of material increases in prices since the previous valuation, and because of certain other factors, the present day valuation as of July 31, 1947, was $3,665,007, which if accepted as a rate base, would reduce the rate of return to the company to 2.37 per cent.

The increase in rates granted by the commission to be effective in the Marion district provides a return of 3.91 per cent which will be raised to 3.93 per cent following the elimination of certain free services, differential rates and special unlimited services now offered in some of its exchanges.

These exchanges, nearest of which are Wharton and Forest, include Amanda, Arlington, Catawba, Jenera, Mt. Blanchard, Rawson and Woodstock.

Rule Hike Justified

The utilities commission concluded from the testimony given at the hearing that the rate increase sought was justified in order to provide the company with earnings sufficient to enable it to fulfill its obligation to furnish adequate service.

Marion, the largest community and only city in the district, contains within the city and in the immediate area adjacent approximately 10,000 of the district's more than 18,000 stations. The company freely admits local service is inadequate at the present time.

Plans are underway which the company anticipates will within the near future remedy this situation. A new local exchange comprising an investment of approximately $1 million dollars has been approved by the company. Contracts for the structure scheduled to be erected on company property recently acquired on Prospect street have already been let, Mr. Williams announced.

The new exchange is to have a 10,000 line capacity, Mr. Williams said as the company has taken into consideration the expanding needs of the community in respect to rendering adequate service to Marion and vicinity.

GALION UNION FILES FOR VOTE

Majority of North Electric Workers Claimed by Independent Group.

Special to The Star

GALION, Nov. 13 — An independent union at the North Electric company filed a petition Wednesday with the National Labor Relations Board claiming a majority of some 463 production employes.

This move will require that the NLRB conduct a secret ballot election at the plant to substantiate the union claim of majority representation and bargaining rights for company workers.

The plant recently reopened after a 75-day strike called by the UAW-CIO seeking recognition as employes agent for collective bargaining had ended in a stalemate.

Agrees to Cross-check

The company as a part of the agreement ending the strike agreed to a UAW request for a cross-check of membership cards as of before the dispute to determine union representation and the right to speak for production workers.

The agreement however was conditional to a provision that any negotiations with the UAW would be halted if workers sought an election through the NLRB. The union had bitterly opposed an election following the indecisive strike.

Plans for the cross-check of union pledge cards against the company payroll by a neutral panel of three persons are still underway according to the agreement, with a Marion and a Galion clergyman representing the union and company respectively. Announcement of an arbiter to be agreed upon by the two clergymen is expected tomorrow.

George Zaebst Heads Union

Negotiations with the UAW were to have begun following the cross-check if the results indicated that the union had a majority of unit employes as of Aug. 19, the day preceding the strike.

The independent union headed by George Zaebst of Galion and formed during the concluding days of the bitter dispute between the company and UAW, is reported to have recruited a considerable number of workers including former sympathizers of the UAW.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 13—W. E. Umstattd of Canton, president of the Timken Roller Bearing Co., outlined plans today for a new type plant to be established at Bucyrus.

Umstattd, discussing the company's expansion plans with a group of Columbus business men, said the new plant will manufacture a single kind of roller bearing on a mass production basis.

The company head said Timken plans no additional expansion of its Canton and Columbus facilities but expects to branch out into smaller communities.

Detroit Auto Dealers Indicted in Car Sales

By Th Associated Press

DETROIT, Nov. 13—Nine Detroit auto dealers and the wives of two of them were named today in indictments signed by recorder's judge W. McKay Skillman, one-man grand jury who has been probing reported irregularities in sales of new and used cars in the Detroit area.

Warrants against two dealers were issued last night, with the remainder being signed today by the grand jury. All the defendants were accused of violating state laws governing sales of automobiles.

The indictments were the first issued by the grand jury, which began its investigation into the Detroit auto market several months ago. They followed closely after the judge's weekend in report in which he rapped both auto dealers and state officials for their parts in "grey" market auto sales operations.

It was indicated today that some of those indicted would be arraigned late today. The court said they would be given an opportunity to appear before him voluntarily before police were sent out to bring them in. There was no immediate comment from those named in warrants.

List of Indicted

The defendants include:

Clarence J. Hacquoil, past president of the Detroit Auto Dealers association and head of the Hacquoil Buick Sales company, one of the largest auto firms in Detroit.

Jerry Lynch, used car dealer.

Raymond A. Dickinson, Donald S. Wallace and Joseph Schulte of the Dickinson-Wallace Pontiac company, auto distributors.

Waldo S. Andrews and Earl C. Jackson, of the Andrews Motor Sales Inc., Buick distributors.

Jack Geller and Saul Charnes, co-owners of the C & G Motor Sales, used car dealers.

Mrs. Martha Geller and Mrs. Ruth Charnes, wives of Geller and Charnes.

Dickinson is former zone manager for the Pontiac division of General Motors Corp.; Wallace is former Pontiac district manager for Wayne county (Detroit) and Schulte is former manager of the western Michigan district for Pontiac.

Summary of Charges

The lengthy, documented warrants—some of them 20 typewritten pages—include charges that:

▶The Dickinson-Wallace company, since January of this year, sold more than 100 new Pontiacs at prices high above the factory recommended price but paid sales taxes only on the list prices.

▶That the Andrews company sold 27 new Buicks to James Duncan, a Detroit car broker, for resale in Tennessee and other southern states, using fictitious names as purchaser to violate the motor vehicle title act as well as sales tax laws.

Duncan was granted immunity by the grand jury.

▶That the Andrews company hid its sale of 20 new Buicks to the Charnes and Geller lot by inventing a non-existent real estate transaction between Andrews and the wives of Charnes and Geller.

Two Others Accused

The grand jury named Fred Ford and Elwood Ford, owners of the Fred Ford and Son used car agency as co-conspirators but not co-defendants.

It also granted immunity to Dickinson salesmen James Caracciola and Paul Messano; Charles Sponnenburgh, Jr., general manager of Macquoil; Ambrose Heinlein, Hacquoil's vice president; and Paul Devlin, sales manager for Jerry Lynch.

The first two indictments handed down by the grand jury yesterday charged Hacquoil sold 21 new Buicks to Lynch in the names of persons who never saw the autos. Hacquoil Buick also was accused of selling 37 new Buicks to Fred and Elwood Ford at an extra profit of $16,000.

FRENCH AUTHOR GIDE GIVEN NOBEL PRIZE

By The Associated Press

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 13 — The French author Andre Gide received the Nobel prize in literature today.

The Swedish Academy of Literature selected the 77-year-old author for 40 years a leader among French writers. Swedish literary circles acclaimed the choice.

His friends had testified that Gide still is "unusually vital in modern currents of art."

Gide's Swedish translator, Dr. Schildt, described the Frenchman as "a Communist against Stalin and a Christian against the church." The author visited Russia in 1933 at the invitation of the Soviet government and spoke in Red square. His address was at the funeral of Maxim Gorki, the Russian writer.

The Nobel prize awards for physics and chemistry were to be announced tonight.

Gide, bald and bespectacled and a lifelong bachelor, announced early in the 1930s that he had become a Communist. His enthusiasm for communism was at a peak from 1933 to 1936. He visited Moscow in 1936 when the purge trials were on, and reurned to Patis to write a book of bitter disillusionment, "Retour de L'U.R.S.S." The Communist criticism caused Gide to write more of the same story of his disillusionment with Josef Stalin's Soviet Union.

Ohio State To Have Queen, Protest Dropped

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13 — A queen was assured today for Ohio State university's homecoming celebration this weekend after the Ohio Students Party Associated withdrew a complaint that last Monday's election was illegal.

OSPA protested the election on a technicality after candidate Virginia Adams, of East Palestine, was penalized 479 votes because her Greek letter-organization supporters spent more than $15 supporting her campaign.

Miss Adams finished among the top six in the balloting. The queen will be announced at a homecoming dance tomorrow.

Old Dreadnaught "Lost" In "Battle" With 2 Fireboats

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 13—The decommissioned battleship New Mexico, temporarily lost at sea while en route to her last "battle," was found today by a Coast Guard search plane and tugs were directed to her side.

Exact location of the vessel was not immediately known, the Coast Guard said. The 30,000-ton super dreadnaught was en route from Boston to her final "battle" with two tiny fireboats attempting to keep her from the port of Newark when she was cut adrift in heavy seas late yesterday.

Skippers of the two tugs which cut her loose reported earlier today to the Coast Guard that they were unable to re-locate the big ship.

The search plane left Floyd Bennett field at 8:13 a. m. The tugs towing the battleship from Boston to Newark bay cut the big ship loose late yesterday, the Coast Guard reported.

Three men were reported aboard the hulk of the decommissioned vessel earlier, but whether they were still aboard it as it drifted was unknown, the Coast Guard said.

As of yesterday the ship was reported off Fire island, about 35 miles from the entrance to New York harbor. The Coast Guard declined to give any estimate of where she might be now.

Says Contact Maintained

The Meseck Towing company, owner of the tugs which were towing the battleship in heavy seas, informed the Coast Guard that the New Mexico was well lighted and that they retained contact with her through most of the night.

At what time contact was lost was unknown, the Coast Guard said, adding it was not believed the battleship constituted a hazard to navigation. An air search was requested after the tugs were unable to find the big ship.

Newark officials, determined that no more ships be scrapped on the city's waterfront, meanwhile kept two 30-foot fireboats on patrol at the entrance to Newark channel to keep the New Mexico from entering the bay, which is a part of New York harbor.

The municipal fireboats took up positions at the mouth of the Port Newark channel leading to the salvage dock where the 30,000-ton dreadnaught is scheduled to be scrapped.

City officials, who say they want no more ships junked on the Newark waterfront, ordered the fireboat fleet to block the bay and called for reinforcements from neighboring New York City as the big battleship approached the harbor.

Newark Fireboat "Fleet" Built at Prospect Plant

The spectacle of two 30-foot fireboats dashing out to stand off a mighty 30,000 ton battleship brought cheers from Prospect residents today.

The fireboats were built there in 1943 by the Hanley Engineering Service. They are of the same type as the 103 jet-propelled craft built by Hanley for the U. S. Coast Guard for service in World War II. They were turned out in 1943 at the same time the government boats were under construction.

In keeping with the spirit of the occasion Keenan Hanley, head of the engineering service, today dispatched the following telegram to "Admiral" John Keenan, safety director of Newark, N. J., at whose orders the "navy" put to sea:

"Hanley Engineering Service, builders of both jet propelled fire boats comprising your mighty navy, wishes to assure you that we are certain victory will be yours. If the battleship dares to enter Newark harbor the result will be a washout." Signed, K. Hanley.

Approximately 300 men of six local service clubs and the Junior Chamber of Commerce, who last week took over the job of "cleaning up" the campaign by Nov. 15, are showing gratifying results in their reports to the campaign headquarters, the records show.

By The Associated Press

The mercury plunged to seven below zero in Grand Forks, N. D., today—the lowest mark in the nation this season—as cool weather spread over the eastern half of the country and into the south.

Temperatures were near the zero mark in several communities in North and South Dakota and Minnesota and dipped below freezing in the eastern states and parts of the south.

Fremont Band To Come Here For Football Game Tomorrow

Two bands will be on hand Friday night to present the program during the halftime at the Harding-Fremont Ross game at the Harding stadium, the last game of the season for the Presidents.

The Fremont Ross High school band will journey here to back its team and will have the first part of the halftime period for their formations.

Preceding the kickoff, the two bands, Fremont and Harding High school, will combine for the flag raising ceremony and will play the National Anthem under the direction of Walter Sells, director of the visiting band.

To open their halftime program, members of the Harding band, which is directed by Homer Huffman, will salute visiting Fremont with an "RH" for Ross High.

Theme of Program

In observance of American Education Week which is being held this week, the band will carry out this theme for most of their program. They will form a lamp of knowledge, playing "America the Beautiful." While the band remains in this formation, E. E. Holt, superintendent of city schools will give a brief talk over the public address system. During the playing of the patriotic selection, with the stadium lights out and with special lighting effects, a twirling exhibition will be given by Martha Douce, a band majorette.

Then, with the field darkened again and the band in a block formation, a "grandfather clock" outlined with special lights will be on the field. The clock will be heard striking 12 o'clock midnight, and then when the hands are at 1 o'clock, the band will play "Dickery Dickery Dock," and at 3 o'clock, "When It's Three O'clock in the Morning," and at 6 o'clock, "Reveille" will be played by Wallace Musgrave, a member of the band. At the three o'clock hours, a special dance will also be given by the drum majorettes.

Other numbers around the clock will include "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise," "Oh What a Beautiful Morning" with a special vocal chorus by Jim Rea, a member of the school chorus, "Now the Day Is Over," "In the Evening by the Moonlight" by a brass quartet composed of Robert Win-

Editor of Carey Paper Robbed

Miss Eloise Thrall Victim of Thug Who Hides in Garage.

Special to The Star

CAREY, Nov. 13—The state highway patrol and Carey police are searching today for an unidentified man who after robbing Miss Eloise Thrall, local newspaper publisher, escaped last night with her car.

The owner of the Carey Times, local weekly, was knocked to the ground, her purse and car taken shortly after 9:30 p. m. as she was preparing to drive her car into the garage after leaving the newspaper office.

The Findlay headquarters of the state patrol reported the car, a 1941 Ford coach, had been found abandoned at 7 a. m. this morning on Sheep Shed lane, a side road two miles south of Carey. The car was undamaged.

Miss Thrall reported to Carey police that she had locked up her office about 9:30 and had driven the three blocks to her home in 324 West Findlay street. She was attacked when she got out of her car to open the garage doors by a man who had broken into the garage through a window and had been waiting inside.

Miss Thrall was unable to give a description of her assailant who after snatching her purse and knocking her to the driveway, made off with her car. She reported little money in the purse, but all of her office and house keys were taken. The purse was missing when the car was found.

Carey Police Chief Henry Tieracini reported Miss Thrall's home had been entered twice within recent weeks but nothing had been taken. Police were called by Miss Thrall immediately after the incident and they in turn notified the state patrol.

TAFT SEES POSSIBLE PRICE RISE FROM MARSHALL PLAN

By The United Press

COLUMBUS, Nov. 13 — Sen. Robert A. Taft (R) of Ohio said today that approval of the full Marshall plan for aid to foreign countries would cause serious price increases in this country.

Taft, head of the senate Republican policy committee, said the Marshall plan should be held to a point where it will not require a great increase in the present rate of exports.

Harriman Would Drop Those Run By Moscow.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13—Secretary of Commerce Harriman testified today he would favor stopping at once any American aid to a nation which might in the future come under the influence of Russia.

Harriman was asked about his attitude in such a case while he was testifying to the house foreign affairs committee in behalf of the administration's proposed $597,000,000 emergency assistance for France, Italy and Austria.

"I would then lose interest in it, in that particular country," Harriman said.

But, in contrast, he said he believes America should hold itself ready to extend help to nations of eastern Europe if they should free themselves of Russian domination.

Certain of these nations, the secretary said, would have "liked to come in and work with us," but were prevented from doing so by Russia.

"Poland, Hungary and Rumania are very friendly to us and have been forced into the iron vise against their will," Harriman said.

His views were brought up under questioning by Rep. Jackson (R-Calif.). Jackson also wanted a list of commodities which this country now exports to Russia. Harriman promised to furnish it.

Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) told a state department representative, appearing before the committee which also is hearing testimony on the administration's emergency foreign aid program:

"Some of us, before this show is over, are going to want some information about uranium."

Uranium is one of the key materials used in the manufacture of the atom bomb.

Want Uranium Stockpile

The uranium question came up when William Phillips, an adviser in the state department's office of international trade policies, told senators of hopes of this nation to obtain strategic materials for stockpiling in return for aid extended under the long-range, self-help recovery program, often called the Marshall plan.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) said he thinks vigorous action should be taken to obtain raw materials in return for the aid.

Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) suggested somebody should inquire if any of the nations receiving help would be willing to turn over strategic air and other bases in return.

PLANE STOCK DEALS AIRED

Officer Tells of Reports High Air Officer Bought Aviation Securities.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13—Col. William B. Nuckols told investigating senators today he heard rumors in early 1943 that air force purchasing officers had heavy holdings of stock in companies with which they were dealing.

Nuckols was an air force public relations officer at the time, and he said he proposed steps for the AAF to be prepared to answer such rumors, if they gained widespread currency.

He said he:

1. Suggested that arrangements be made with The Associated Press to make a survey of such holdings.

(Although it was not brought out in the testimony, Nuckols' plan for a survey by The Associated Press was not carried out, committee counsel said. Nor was there any indication The Associated Press was even contacted.)

2. Suggested that letters be sent out to high air force officers asking them to list confidentially their holdings of such stocks.

Among those to whom this letter was sent, he said, was Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers who told the senate war investigating committee yesterday that he bought 100 shares of Republic Aviation stock during the war for Lt. Gen. Ira Eaker.

Meyers' Bond Deal

Meyers also told the committee he made a $4,000,000 speculative purchase of government bonds.

Nuckols was the first witness as the senate committee opened a phase of hearings which Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich) said would develop the details of how Meyers swung this deal.

Nuckols had not got far into his story before Ferguson called a recess. The Michigan senator explained he had to appear before the supreme court to move admission of some attorneys to practice.

PRICE OF NEW HOMES TO CONTINUE HIGH

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13—Speakers told the National Association of Real Estate Boards today the price of new homes will continue to rise for two more years.

They expressed belief that farm lands as well will be higher next year, and commercial buildings will continue "in considerable volume" despite the fact costs will remain high.

J. Earl Miller, president of the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards and of the Miller Realty Co., Geneva, O., forecast higher prices for farm lands in 1948 than this year.

"Farm Brokers throughout the nation have, within the last few months, been experiencing a new and greater demand for farms," he said, adding that there are two classes of buyers: professional men purchasing for investment or security, and farmers interested in acquiring new farms rather than in expanding their present holdings.

DELAWARE SHERIFF HUNTS YOUNG ROBBER

By The Associated Press

DELAWARE, O., Nov. 13 — Sheriff Earl Fravel hunted today for a youth believed to have slugged and robbed a grocer at nearby Bellepoint last night, two hours after the holdup of a filling station attendant south of Belleville, Richland county.

Sheriff Fravel said descriptions given in the two cases tallied.

The Bellepoint victim, Arthur Ballard, was hit on the head with a gun as he stood outside his store. He reported the robber forced him inside, where his wife, three children, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Lewis, were talking. The youth took about $150 from the till and ran out when he heard a knock on the side of the building, Ballard said.

At Belleville, about 40 miles northeast, D. A. Peters, the station attendant, said a youth ordered ten gallons of gasoline in his car, then robbed him of about $80.

UN VOTE DUE TODAY ON MARSHALL PROPOSALS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 13—Secretary of State Marshall's last two major proposals before the United Nations come up for final vote in the general assembly today with assurance of passage.

Russia, however, has announced she will boycott both of the new UN organs which would be created by the American resolutions.

One of the proposals sets up a year-around "little assembly" to implement Marshall's plan for overhauling UN machinery and the other establishes a UN commission to supervise voting and creation of a government in Korea. The third key item in Marshall's program—a watchdog commission for the Balkans—already has been approved and boycotted by the Soviet bloc.

Capital Capers

By Frederick Othman

WASHINGTON — ...nspeaker in the golden ...anctum of the house ways ...s committee went boo...e ...wail of a hungry blood-...

... the squeal of some of the ...," observed Rep. Ber... W. Gearhart of California.

"... sun," protested Garner M. ... of Jackson, Miss. "Not loud ... to be our squeal."

... payer Lester was sore, with an indignation as broad as his southern accent. The trouble with this country, he said, is great business concerns going into competition with fellows like himself, calling themselves cooperatives, and paying no income taxes on a total trade of $7,182,185,000, billions that is, last year.

What makes Lester and friends in the National Tax Equality association angrier still is the fact that the government (the farm Credit Administration) is spending $300,000 a year on their money, hiring 70 people to organize more cooperatives.

LESTER AND HIS FELLOW business men figure this is a vicious circle, with the government using tax money to persuade taxpayers to quit paying. This makes no sense to them and they are here in force to demand that the lawmakers make another law, and quickly. We might as well stick, for the purposes of this dispatch, to the troubles of cotton ginner Lester.

He got up an 80-page book on cooperatives. Then he wrote a 40-page speech, read every word, and testified for another hour extemporaneously. As of this moment, he said, 32,246 cooperatives in America run railroads, peddle soap, refine gasoline, package tea, and sell spark plugs, corn-flakes, razor blades, and electric refrigerators.

"There's even a co-op lipstick," he said, removing his steel-rimmed glasses and rubbing his eyes. "And colop toilet toilet soap, with apple blossom perfume.

THESE OUTFITS IGNORE the income tax collectors, he continued, and hence they multiply like guinea pigs. Now the labor unions are setting up co-op groceries; next thing you know they'll be running co-op farms so there'll be no taxes paid from corn field to breakfast food bowl, he predicted.

One of the federals showed up at Jackson a while back, he said, announced that the government wasn't interested in taxpayers and set up a co-op cotton gin. Took some of Lester's business and thereby made off with profits he'd otherwise have included on his tax returns.

"I've been a-fightin' this thing since the last war," cried Lester, whose accent thickened in direct proportion to his bitterness. "A'hm not up heah for fun.

"When ah get home ah could call in my neighbors and say, 'look heah boys. A'hm gonna give you this gin as a co-op and you-all can hire me to manage it.' Then ah could turn it over to an assistant and live in Florida."

Lester paused.

"AH COULD DO IT," he roared. "An' why not? Because it jus doesn't run in mah blood. That's the reason a'mn heah."

It was here that the loudspeaker joined in the debate; Lester's anguish obviously was too much for the machinery. And I'd better make my apologies in advance, to witness Lester for whatever liberties he may believe I have taken with his southern accent and to the co-op gentlemen on the other side of the tax fence. They disagree violently with Lester, claim that if it weren't for them no telling what prices would be, and add that taxes to the average co-op are a matter of small importance.

An elegant fight seems to be breawing and I only hope I don't get a bloody nose; or if I do, that I can buy a co-op handkerchief cheaply.

Mrs. Goerlich Hostess To Ladies' Bible Class

Mrs. A. A. Goerlich was hostess to the Ladies Bible class of the First Evangelical and Reformed church Tuesday afternoon at her home on Kenmore avenue. Seventeen members responded to roll call with scripture verses, and Mrs. J. W. Klingle conducted devotions. Mrs. Lee Howison read a poem, "A Little Old Shawl," and Mrs. Anna Zimmerman gave a reading, "A Thanksgiving Thought." During the social hour, a guessing contest was won by Mrs. Caroline Reiselt. Plans were made for the annual Christmas gift exchange to be held at the December meeting with Mrs. Harry Augenstein on Oak Grove avenue. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. M. LOYAL DAUGHTERS CLASS MEETS IN TEACHER'S HOME

Members of the Loyal Daughters class of Prospect Street Methodist church were entertained Tuesday at the home of their teacher, Miss Ruth Schott at 590 East Church street. Devotions in charge of Miss Frances Haas and a song, "Sweet Hour of Prayer," by the group opened the meeting. Miss Ruth Carr, president, presided.

Plans were made to fill a box for a needy family for Christmas, and to buy candy to be given to the Marion County Children's Home for Christmas. The class also decided to draw names for secret sisters at the Christmas meeting at the home of Miss Haas at 202 Forest Lawn boulevard, at which time a gift exchange will be held. Miss Carr will be co-hostess for that meeting.

During the social hour, Miss Betty Bierce, who will become the bride of Warren Seiter Dec. 7, was presented a gift from the class. She found her gift by means of a treasure hunt with original verses by Miss Schott. Miss Barbara Calmer was a guest and assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

U. S. Soldier Freed By Yugoslav Troops

By The United Press

TRIESTE, Nov. 13—Sgt. Duel Farrell of the U. S. Army, who was seized by Yugoslav troops Tuesday while fishing southeast of Gorizia, was returned to Italian officials in Gorila late Wednesday.

Returned to his unit, Farrell said he was treated well by the Yugoslavs. He said he was questioned briefly and then was held under guard at San Pietro, a small town in Yugoslavia.

U. S. Army authorities announced the freeing of Farrell.

Quick Money

THE tales of high finance being related to the senate war investigating committee in Washington are all alike. They will continue to be alike as long as they are told. They were all alike after World War I, after the Spanish-American war, after the Civil war, after the Revolutionary war.

The unnatural pressure and relaxed safeguards of wartime always stimulate manipulators of quick money. In World War II only the circumstances were different, the principle was the same as it has been since Hannibal bought up enough elephants to carry off his march across the Alps. He probably paid too much, because there was a war on.

The upshot of the business always is the same too—a frightening deterioration of ethical standards. War destroys more than people and material; it destroys character. In Chicago recently, a cab driver caught gypping a passenger was quoted in The Daily News as saying: "everybody's allowed to rob the public except the cab drivers. In times like these, why should anyone squawk if we make a buck here and there?"

In times like these... Everybody's doing it... Make hay while the sun shines... You're a liar... A fellow has to look out for himself... A buck here and there... Git a-plenty while yore a-gittin'....

"The Great Morning" Is Over

THE new British law putting all idle persons to work ends an age in a land where the moneyed classes' enjoyment of leisure was told in memoir and story.

Sir Max Beerbohm's "Great Morning" is the latest set of memoirs to celebrate England's great days when there was a moneyed leisure class. In England fiction are countless young men who neither toiled nor spun but made fascinating narratives—P. C. Wodehouse's Nertie Wooster, the unprincipled bounders of Evelyn Waugh's novels, the foppish young men of Oscar Wilde's plays, the introspective ones of G. B. Shaw, Noel Coward's experts in hurling the 36-pound epigram.

Gone are the years when student days at Oxford were followed by winters on the Riviera or at Capri, summers at the spas of France and Germany, occasional visits to London for coupon-clipping and a pleasant middle age within the snug confines of a London club.

Those times, which comprised what Beerbohm calls the "Great Morning," are gone. Now England is preparing to meet the long night.

Adjustable Work Week

IF LABOR unions on one hand and their critics of the other hand could forget their fears and prejudices long enough to talk calmly, they'd see certain bright possibilities in an adjustable work week.

It is demonstrable at this time that a 40-hour week is an unnatural restriction on both production and earning power. The addition of, say five hours of work at standard rates would increase output, provide greater earning power for many workers and have a tendency to stabilize prices by overcoming shortages.

The only way the United States can export unprecedented amounts of its output to Europe, receiving nothing in return, is to bring about a net increase in domestic production; otherwise, the Marshall plan will cause an ever-greater amount of inflation by bleeding the country of goods its own citizens need.

Most strongly of all it can be argued that the 40-hour work week, already shrunk to a 37½-hour week in many enterprises, was created to spread employment during a time when workers were being laid off because production had outstripped demand. If there was any logic in trimming the work week then, there is logic in adding to it now.

But if labor unions on one hand and their critics on the other hand could talk without fear and prejudice, many logical arrangements not now possible would be made as a matter of course.

Mrs. Throckmorton Smoked

AS WE go down time's echoing corridors, 1947 won't be remembered as the year a Mrs. Throckmorton smoked a cigar at the Metropolitan Opera premiere. But that's what happened. She posed prettily for photographers, expertly holding her cigar and her drink in the same hand.

News accounts of Met premieres make fascinating reading. One year a bored gentleman stood on his head. Another year a valuable ring was lost. Photographers record for posterity the latest creations of the style salons. This year, according to a reliable wire service, one of the fine ladies occupying a box wore an estimated $1,200,000 worth of jewels. Whether this galaxy outshone the diamond stomacher the late Mrs. Vanderbilt used to wear is debatable.

It's a shame the jottings about the Met premieres are so ephemeral. A latter-day Gibson, writing another "Decline and Fall," would be fascinated by them.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Congress and the Constitution.

IT HAS been suggested to me that I have erred in applying the preamble of the Constitution to the obligations of congress. The preamble, setting forth the reasons for having a constitution, provides:

1. To form a more perfect union; 2. To establish justice; 3. To insure domestic tranquility; 4. To provide for the common defense; 5. To promote the general welfare; 6. To secure the blessings of liberty . . .

All that follows the preamble, implements it. Having stated the objectives, the Constitution establishes the machinery for their accomplishment. Story, in his classic, said of the preamble:

". . . It is an admitted maxim in the ordinary course of the administration of justice, that the preamble of a statute is a key to open the mind of the makers, as to the mischiefs, which are to be remedied, and the objects, which are to be accomplished by the provisions of the statute . . ."

While the preamble itself does not grant powers, it does imply obligations. As story continued:

". . . Its true office is to expound the nature, and extent, and application of the powers actually conferred by the constitution, and not substantively to create them."

Stands Test of Time

The Constitution was a difficult document to write and that it has continued as our basic law for 160 years establishes the wisdom of those who produced it. This country at that time was being governed by the articles of confederation, which established not a government but a compact among sovereign states. If the nation were to survive, a government with powers had to be formed and those powers required the respect, support and compliance of the people. The preamble to the Constitution then stated the objectives, provided the political philosophy, and offered a guide.

To those of us alive today, the phrase, "A more perfect union" may, in our historical ignorance, seem puerile. But that is only because we fail to realize how little union existed when the Constitution was written and that a war among the states had to be fought some 70 years later to establish its authority.

My point, in a previous column, was that the Thomas committee, as a part of congress, had the obligation to concern itself with that clause in the preamble which dealt with "domestic tranquility." The Federalist points to the small causes which may disrupt domestic tranquility:

"The influence which the bigotry of one female, the petulance of another, and the cabals of a third, had in the contemporary policy, ferments and pacifications, of a considerable part of Europe, are topics that have been too often descanted upon not to be generally known."

Hamilton Said It

And then, Alexander Hamilton, who wrote this particular article, adds

"But notwithstanding the concurring testimony of experience, in this particular, there are still to be found visionary or designing men, who stand ready to advocate the paradox of perpetual peace between the states, though dismembered and alienated from each other . . ."

In another article in The Federalist, Hamilton continues the argument by stating the entire issue before the Thomas committee today:

"In republics, persons elevated from the mass of the community, by the suffrages of their fellow-citizens, to stations of great pre-eminence and power, may find compensations for betraying their trust, which, to any but minds animated and guided by superior virtue may appear to exceed the proportion of interest they have in the common stock and to overbalance the obligations of duty. Hence it is that history furnishes us with so many mortifying examples of the prevalency of foreign corruption in republican governments . . ."

Story, commenting on this, says:

". . . Domestic factions may well be expected to arise, which, when honest, may lead to the most pernicious public measures; and when corrupt, to domestic insurrections, and even to an overthrow of the government . . ."

Duty of All

The Thomas committee would be unmindful of its obligations if it ignored the constitutional behest to insure the domestic tranquility, for such is the duty of all three branches of our government. It is very easy for small and unimproved minds to pick and choose the obligations with which they care to be burdened. The complete citizen is the one who accepts the entire Constitution and abides by it. For upon it America stands firm; without it our country falls to faction and strife.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Petrillo feels better than ever . . . "Information Please" came to him with a question and he isn't even on the panel of experts.

* * *

The question was "Why do we have to pay 300 standby pianists not to play?" If Jimmy fails to answer it correctly he will next guest star on "Federal Jury Trials."

* * *

The producer of the show says he hasn't been able to use a musical question this season. He shouldn't have tried . . . It is a well-grounded precedent that all musical questions go to Mr. Petrillo.

* * *

In fact I hear that on his records appears a curious entry which reads "Check Gabriel for his card the minute he lifts that horn."

But a man who has tangled with the White House and congress isn't going to feel hurt if he doesn't win a set of encyclopedias from Dan Golenpaul.

* * *

What do they mean anyway? . . . They want 300 pianists to play at once? Is that public service?

Second Thoughts on Election

By Raymond Moley

PRESIDENT TRUMAN smiled broadly when the Democratic victory in Kentucky was mentioned. He has reason to be happy about that. And considering the hard year the President has ahead, no humane person will begrudge him a bit of cheer.

Republicans can derive little comfort from Kentucky. It is not sufficient to alibi their defeat by saying Kentucky is "normally Democratic" and all that. The point is that four years ago a Republican was elected governor by the narrow margin of one and one-half per cent of the vote. Two years later, it was clear that the Republican regime in the state was not doing well. Now, the voters have turned the Republicans out. The Republicans simply muffed the ball.

They will lose out in Indiana, too, unless things improve there. There has been a good deal of trouble in the Indiana Republican fold of late, despite the great ascendency of the party in the state. Now the Democrats have pitched the Republicans out of a number of large cities. Republican regimes had been in power in those cities for a good many years. They elected Republican mayors in that state even when the Two Per cent machine of McNutt-McHale and Elder was at its height. This is a local infection, but it is a warning to the high command of the state.

Little Cheer Elsewhere

As we look elsewhere, we find little justification for the Truman smile. In California, the Republican drift, so notable in 1946, has continued. Republicans won three seats in the legislature formerly held by Democrats. These state by-elections were widely scattered—one in the far north, one in San Francisco and one in Los Angeles. A Republican was elected mayor in San Francisco over a Democrat who has been four times to congress in his city.

In Ohio, the reelection of a Democratic mayor in Cleveland was taken for granted. A Republican mayor will replace a Democrat in Youngstown.

In Detroit, municipal elections are non-partisan, with strong labor overtones. Edward J. Jeffries, two years ago, won over the determined opposition of the CIO-PAC. His opponent then was a former CIO officer of great color and virtuosity. This time, the CIO supported Jeffries, and he lost.

Democratic Gains

In New York, the Democrats made impressive gains in big upstate cities. But in New York City the left-wing vote lost heavily in its support of Proportional Representation.

In Connecticut, several towns a few weeks ago turned out Republicans and elected Democrats. This was due to general resentment against an overly complex sales tax enacted by a Republican governor and legislature.

In Waterbury last week Republicans won the city after 26 years of Democratic rule. This upset is attributed to resentment over a property reappraisal. It was a revolt against higher taxes.

Perhaps the philosophical conclusion of a Waterbury observer gives point to the national result. People are voting against high taxes and high prices, he says. He adds that the President should keep this in mind when he has to act again on a tax reduction bill.

Another national lesson is that the Taft-Hartley Act will be an asset, rather than a liability to the Republicans next year. Wherever Democrats won they made no real attack on the "slave act." The general trend was toward conservatism in labor and taxes.

But the election also showed that the Republican party had better nominate a strong candidate for President. Otherwise, the Truman smile will appear again next November.

Final plans were being completed for Marion county's participation in the unemployment census to be conducted by postoffices throughout the country. Every person in each household who was totally or partly unemployed was to be requested to fill out a card and return it by mail before midnight on Saturday, Nov. 20.

Wheat was quoted on the local grain market at 82 cents a bushel, while oats 27 cents and yellow corn 39 cents. Local hog prices were: good butchers 8.90; medium 8.70; prime lambs 9.50; cattle, fat steers 7 to 10.50, heifers 6 to 9 and fat cows 5 to 6.

Trade in Europe Needed

By Walter Lippmann

THE bad news about the prospects of the crop from the winter wheat belt in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas underlines sharply the conclusion of the Paris conference that European recovery requires a resumption of trade and mutual aid between western and eastern Europe.

Perhaps the greatest weakness in the administration's presentation of the European program to Congress is its extreme understatements about—one might almost say its disposition to gloss over—the crucial importance to the success of the Marshall plan of a flow of food and feeding stuffs, also of timber and coal, from eastern Europe.

The likelihood of a very poor American crop will dramatize the impossibility, which was well understood in Paris, of basing the recovery of western Europe and western Germany on the resources of North America alone.

I am venturing, therefore, to make a few observations on the relation of the eastern European countries to the Marshall plan. They are based on a number of off-the-record talks I had with communists, noncommunists, and anticommunists in Warsaw and Prague just after the 16 western nations at Paris had completed their report.

It is clear to me that the prompt acceptance of the invitation to participate in a European program reflected the real interests and sentiment of Poland and Czechoslovakia, the two key countries within the Soviet orbit. I am no less certain that the command from Moscow forbidding them to participate on pain of a rupture of their alliances was a humiliation which will long be remembered.

It must never be forgotten, no matter what the appearances, that the Poles and Czechs are intensely patriotic, nationalistsic peoples. It is immensely significant that the Soviet propaganda designed to reconcile them to nonparticipation is based almost entirely on assertions that the Marshall plan will impair the sovereignty and independence of the European nations.

Moscow Takes Gamble

Whatever the real reasons which caused Moscow itself to decide against participation, it is reasonably clear now that Moscow realized the great attraction of a European program to its allies. In opposing it, Moscow was taking what it thought was a calculated risk.

Its primary calculation was that no country, in time of peace, would make such a massive contribution to the welfare of other nations except on terms which required heavy sacrifices from the recipient. The Russians felt sure, because that is the way they would have acted, that the project would fail; that Congress was not capable of the enlightened disinterestedness of Secretary Marshall's Harvard speech, and that it would not vote the funds without making demands which the Europeans would be compelled to reject.

Soviet propaganda against the Marshall plan — the charge of American imperialism—is staked upon the belief that in voting the funds Congress will impose political conditions, and that in administering the aid the State Department will intervene in the internal affairs of every country that accepts aid.

The Communists are telling Europe that the Marshall plan is merely the Truman doctrine, and that the Truman doctrine is exemplified by the Greek intervention.

Nevertheless, I am satisfied that not too much weight should be given to the propagandist attack. It has not disposed of the need and the desire of the eastern nations to participate in a European program of recovery. They are reconciled to nonparticipation in the immediate American aid program, as distinguished from the general European program, because, having studied the report, they believe that even if there were no ideological and diplomatic barriers, they would not qualify for much American assistance.

Nature of Assistance

They see that the American government aid is largely concentrated on food, fuel, and raw materials, rather than on capital goods. Now eastern Europe and Russia are not in a crisis arising from a deficiency of food, fuel and raw materials. They are potential exporters of these commodities to the west. What they want from the west are capital goods which, as they become available, they expect to buy with their food and fuel.

The difference between western Europe and eastern Europe is that the west is in a state of crisis—which requires emergency aid from North America—whereas eastern Europe is, except for certain regions like Bohemia, in a state of chronic misery, which can be relieved only gradually.

The west has a higher standard of life which is in danger of collapse if American aid is not forthcoming promptly. The east is accustomed to a low standard of life but it is able at least to maintain it out of the resources which are open to it.

For western Europe, abnormal aid is required if the existing social order is to be maintained. For eastern Europe, its isolation means that the improvement of its condition of life will be much slower than if intercourse with the west is resumed and begins to flourish.

Therefore, in the short run, there is no irresistible pressure upon Moscow from within the Soviet orbit to make a European settlement. This is the strongest asset Moscow has in the diplomatic bargaining over the German and the Austrian treaties.

Cardinal Virtue of Plan

In diplomatic terms the cardinal virtue of the Marshall plan is that in relieving the crisis of western Europe, it permits western Europe to bargain on equal, even favorable terms, with eastern Europe. If it were not for the Marshall plan, western Europe would have to accept necessitous bargains in order to get access to the indispensable food of the east.

In the longer run, however, the bargaining position of Russia must decline. Eastern Europe, especially in view of Russia's own tremendous reconstruction needs, must stagnate if trade is not resumed

The Soviet Delegate Objects

Mr. Herschel Johnson—Mr. Chairman, I desire to put a motion, somewhat early, recording the organization as wishing everybody a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Mr. Vishinsky—I oppose any such motion as typical of the capitalistic mind and as another effort to impose the will of Wall Street on the rest of the world.

Mr. Johnson—I had assumed that wishing the world a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year might be one thing on which we could all agree.

Mr. Vishinsky—You can't pull the wool over my eyes.

A French Delegate—Mr. Chairman, in a spirit of compromise it might serve the purpose if we eliminated the adjective "very" which I take it is objected to by the Soviet delegate as going perhaps farther than is necessary at this time.

Mr. Vishinsky—A rascally horse trade!

* * *

A Belgian Delegate—Will the Soviet delegate state his exact objection to the resolution?

Mr. Gromyko—The attitude of my government is that it is imperialistic and too sweeping. It also violates the charter and the procedure rules.

A French Delegate—May I suggest that we amend the resolution so that it can be split into two parts, and that we take up the merry Christmas first and as a separate proposition? Then we can consider the item of a happy New Year.

Mr. Vishinsky—This is a Fascist evasion and palpable trickery. It is a typical plot to put the Soviet government in a position where it will be recorded as in favor of something of a peaceful nature. I am against that either on a piecemeal basis or all at one time.

Mr. Johnson—Since our main desire is to preserve good feeling here, how would it be if the resolution omits the words "merry" and "happy" and merely wishes the world a "Christmas and a New Year" this time?

Mr. Vishinsky—That is a contemptible proposal by a reactionary state and is characteristic of what I have to put up with here. My government cannot be fooled by a mere juggling of words by exponents of power politics.

Mr. McNeil—Does the Soviet delegate object wholly to Christmas and New Year's as such?

Mr. Vishinsky—No tool of the old order can trap me into a statement on that. I defy anybody to show where any position was taken on Yuletide or New Year's at Potsdam or Teheran.

* * *

Mr. Johnson—Mr. Chairman, desiring harmony above all else, I propose that this organization forget what has been thus far proposed and merely go on record as NOT being OPPOSED to happiness at Christmas and New Year's.

Vishinsky—I denounce that as subterfuge of which only a decadent state could be guilty.

Mr. Johnson—Oh, very well. Suppose we drop the proposals so far and merely go on record as approving Christmas trees, Kris Kringle, brotherly love and good will toward man.

Vishinsky (very indignantly)—At a time like this? DONCHA KNOW THERE'S A PEACE ON?

Merry Something

By Truman Twill

Among so many Christmas cards there always should be one that conveys exactly the right thought to the dear friends who soon are going to be driven nuts by getting cards from dear friends they forgot to remember.

Take the spindly-legged deer, for example, posed against a blue background. Very artistic, the deer. But not quite the thing for people whose idea of an artistic deer is a chunk of venison. The deer won't do.

The four quaint gents with scarves and pot-bellies singing carols by lantern light aren't too bad if it weren't for gnawing doubts about the union rate they'd be getting for the job. The gents won't do.

The three wise men on camels are always good, but there are legitimate, historic doubts about their means of locomotion and on top of that there are doubts about the propriety of imposing on them so often. The wise men won't do.

There's something to be said about the bells pealing out except that the job would be done better these days with some kind of an electric device. Quaintness can go too far. Skip the bells.

The candle in the window, with the holly wreath, is dandy, but one shudders to think of the fire hazard and the underprivileged condition of people who cannot afford to have electricity piped in. Besides, the candle suggests they may be waiting for the prodigal son, instead of Christmas. No candle, thanks.

The Christmas tree with all the doodads on it is excellent, very Christmasy, but a little obvious. Also the Christmas tree without the doodads—the one standing in the forest—is nice, but not quite obvious enough. No trees, thank you.

Perhaps the church steeple. Or it might be the old-fashioned farm house with the sleigh standing at the front door. Or the pretty building with the frosted windows. But no architecture this year, if you please.

The stockings in front of the fireplace are cute, a little too cute, all things considered. That goes for the pictures of Santa Claus, who in real life never is a jolly elf, and also for the reindeers pretending to be saying things. Reindeers can't talk.

The snowscape is nice, there is something to be said for the dignified card with nothing on it but the season's greetings, and there is even something to be said for the cute cards that make jokes.

But none of them quite hits the right thought—the thought that Christmas is coming, nothing can be done to stop it, so here is the customary card picked out in advance to offset other cards picked out in advance by people trying to convey just the right thought too—and not quite doing it.

College-Bred Farmers

By International News Service

ITHACA—"Young farmers today need to be as well prepared for their business as do doctors or lawyers," says C. A. Bratton, extension economist at Cornell. Between 1907 and 1936 farmers with a college education earned five times as much as did those who attended only grade school, a recent survey showed. Figures from more than 10,000 New York farms showed an annual average labor income of $1,050 for those with college educations, compared with $525 for those who had gone only as far as high school.

RAILROAD EMPLOYES TO MEET SATURDAY

Brotherhoods Sponsor Sessions at Central Labor Hall.

A meeting of all railroad employes and their wives is to be held Saturday at 7:30 p. m. in the Marion Central Labor Union hall at 134 East Church street to discuss questions of vital importance to railroad people. Officers of the railroad brotherhoods who are sponsoring the meeting announce it is imperative that all railroad employes attend and voice their opinions on the questions to be discussed.

Some 300 railroad people were in attendance at a meeting Oct. 23 when the "Crosser" amendments to the railroad retirement act were explained. The various officers and members of the railroad brotherhoods are hoping for the completion of the association that is being formed among railroad men and women for the purpose of arranging future meetings.

Dr. Edwin A. Brown, of 249 Blaine avenue, who has held many important positions in connection with labor and management, will address the meeting. He was appointed as public panel member of the War Labor Board, also as an arbitrator with the U. S. Conciliation Service, and was approved as a U. S. commissioner of conciliation. Dr. Brown is now a member of the American Association of Arbitrators. He is also pastor of Wesley Methodist church here.

The women of the group will serve refreshments following the meeting.

MR. AND MRS. L. STEIN of 258 Clover avenue are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Jeanne, to Bernard Blonder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blonder of Cleveland, O., and Miami Beach, Fla. The wedding will take place early in the new year. Miss Stein is a graduate of Harding High school and Vogue, a school of fashion and photography in Chicago. Her fiance attended Western Reserve and Ohio State universities and is a member of Zeta Beta Tau fraternity. He is associated with his father and brothers in the Blonder Wallpaper and Paint Co. of Cleveland.

MEMBERS of the Altrurian club chose Monday afternoon to entertain with a guest party at Ringer's Inn. Autumn motifs were used for the appointments for a luncheon at which covers were placed for 23 members and guests. The program opened with devotions by Mrs. Adah Geddis and Mrs. Frances Disbennett gave the verse for the day. Humorous quotations were given in response to roll call and members introduced their guests.

A duet, "Somebody," was sung by Mrs. Curtis Laubner and Mrs. Disbennett and Mrs. Lottie Porter gave a group of readings including sketches from Johnny Appleseed, Bromfield's "Pleasant Valley" and the "Bear Story" by James Whitcomb Riley.

Guests included Mrs. C. J. Zimmerman, Mrs. Glydia Frost, Miss Maude Anselment, Mrs. C. R. Clevenger, Mrs. Bertha Brobst, Mrs. C. G. Roberts and Mrs. Maxine Barzacchini.

A luncheon was held by members of the Three Arts club Tuesday at the Federation Home, with Mrs. Dale Lawrence and Mrs Ben T. Wiant serving as hostesses. A "pig in a poke" sale was held during the social hour for the purpose of raising money for the club. Two papers were presented for the program. STATE BUREAU MAY HANDLE VETS' BONUS

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13—Ohio's $300,000,000 World War II bonus may be distributed through facilities of the state unemployment compensation bureau.

Such a move was sanctioned unofficially by the state sinking fund commission, which authorized Gov. Herbert to seek federal approval for the proposal.

Federal consent is necessary, the commission said, because of federal participation in unemployment compensation.

Frank Collopy, state unemployment compensation director, offered the division's facilities. He said its 92 agencies throughout the state had processed 700,000 claims recently, but now was handling only 100,000 a month.

Sinking fund commissioners said their next meeting on the bonus question would be formal but would not be held until after certification of constitutional amendments approving the bonus and enlargement of the commission.

Three additional applications for the bonus administrators' job were announced. The new applicants are Wilbur Shook and Miles Craig, both of Columbus, and Charles Hubbell of Cleveland. Don Schoeppe, also of Columbus, applied for the post earlier.

NICHOLS HOSPITAL GREETS ITS OLDEST VET PATIENT

By The United Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 13 — Charles Ulrich of Louisville sat in a ward at Nichols hospital for war veterans here yesterday and chuckled with glee as he double-jumped his checker opponent.

When Ulrich reported to the Veterans' hospital for a checkup and treatment for arteriosclerosis, he became the oldest veteran admitted to Nichols since the veterans' administration took over the installation in 1946.

The 100-year-old ex-serviceman is a Union veteran of the Civil war.

FREEDOM GARDENS ON GRANGE PROGRAM

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13—An expanded youth program, turning on growing gardens to help prevent starvation in other lands, may be worked out in the 81st annual meeting of the National Grange.

A conference of Juvenile Grange leaders started work on the program today while others of the 17,000 delegates and visitors to the convention participated in the first of its ritual ceremonies. The seventh degree, the highest, is being conferred on a class of 15,000, largest in Grange history, in ceremonies lasting through today and into tomorrow at a downtown theater.

The convention, continuing through Nov. 21, opened officially last night with National Master Albert S. Goss, address, calling for a fight against rising prices through full production, a balanced budget, sound credit, and "profit sharing among industry, labor and the consuming public."

Mrs. Elizabeth Carstensen of Almira, Wash., national juvenile superintendent, said the juvenile conference would consider urging the Granges' 56,000 children under 14 to plant vegetable gardens next summer on the victory garden scale of the war so the food they raise would release that much more for shipment to starving countries.

The "freedom gardens" would be added to the juvenile Grange program revolving around its annual "happy home contest," in which children between five and 14 compete by doing things to improve their own homes and farms. Winners of this year's contest are to be announced during the convention.

The bride is employed at the Arro Expansion Bolt Co. and the bridegroom is with the Pollak Steel Co. The couple will make their home with the bride's parents.

Mrs. A. W. Lares of 448 Mary street is announcing the marriage of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Gasmire, to John Allan Kessler, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kessler of 442 South Prospect street, which took place Friday evening. Only the immediate families and close friends were present for the ceremony read at 7:30 o'clock in the Prospect Street Methodist church, with the pastor, Rev. Henry Maag, officiating.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Carl Maddux of Steubenville, the bride wore a deep purple crepe costume with green accessories. Her flowers were an orchid corsage. Mrs. George Hansen, sister of the bridegroom, and the bride's brother, Kenneth Gasmeyer, were the attendants.

The bride's mother was costumed in black and Mrs. Kessler chose a black costume with which she wore pink accessories. Both wore gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the newly-furnished home of the bride and bridegroom at 524 East Church street. The bride is a secretary in the office of Drs. F. V. and Daniel Murphy, and the bridegroom is a fireman with the Erie Railroad Co.

NO STREET MEETING, WALLACE DECIDES

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13—Former Vice President Henry A. Wallace said this morning he would not hold a street meeting here after having been denied use of an auditorium at the University of Cincinnati.

Lawrence Kraus, his secretary, had indicated last night that Wallace might hold either a street meeting or one on the college campus, as he had done twice before. His address in Music Hall tonight will be made as scheduled, he said.

The University of Cincinnati, in denying use of its auditorium to Wallace, said yesterday in explanation:

"It is the policy of the University of Cincinnati to refrain from sponsoring or appearing to sponsor, directly or indirectly, partisan political opinion."

Wallace said today that the University of Cincinnati "evidently wants to keep the students in political purity. Each university has the right to preserve the welfare of its students in the way it thinks best."

Wallace declared the big purpose of his life is to "help prevent a needless war between the United States and Russia, a war that could annihilate the human race in the northern hemisphere and leave only the inhabitants of the southern hemisphere."

Wallace said he is "not a candidate for any office at this time."

In a Cleveland address sponsored last night by the Progressive Citizens of America, the former cabinet member asserted:

"We ourselves are guilty of almost every charge made in our press and by our officials against the government of the Soviet Union."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

CAN CUT U.S. TAXES 6 BILLION, SAYS CED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13—Congressional tax experts received today a report from the committee for economic development saying the U. S. tax load can be lightened $6,000,000,000 in 1948 without jeopardizing foreign aid or payments on the national debt.

Chairman Knutson (R-Minn) turned the findings of the businessmen's group over to staff consultants of the house ways and means committee, but said he still plans to press for enactment of his own proposal to cut income taxes by $4,000,000,000 at the regular session of congress.

The committee for economic development is headed by Paul C. Hoffman, president of the Studebaker Corp.

As a starter in tax reduction, the CED suggested:

1. Reduce the present first bracket rate of individuals (now 19 per cent on the first $2,000 of taxable income) to 15.2 per cent on the first $1,000; graduate the rates upward until they reach 67.3 at $100,000 of taxable income and a top rate of 82 per cent at $1,000,000.

2. Extend to all states the community property principle for tax computation purposes, allowing husbands and wives to divide the family income equally, holding the income in lower brackets and reducing the taxes. This now is effective in 13 states by their own laws.

3. Remove excise taxes on communications and transportation.

4. Make a start toward eliminating the double tax on dividends—that is, the taxation of a corporation's earnings as well as the dividends paid to stockholders.

"Society has not constructed monuments to these great men but mankind has built costly monuments to general and so-called great leaders that have destroyed the lives and homes of men, women and children and have left a trail of blood behind them."

The closing prayer was by William E. Sergent.

Sift together ..... 1 cup sifted GOLD MEDAL "Kitchen-tested" Enriched Flour; ½ tsp. salt

Cut in with pastry blender or 2 knives ..... ⅓ cup shortening . . . first cutting in half of it until mixture looks like "meal" . . . then cutting in rest until particles are size of giant peas

Sprinkle over mixture . . 2 tbsp. water . . . mixing with fork to make dough stay together

Round up into ball and let stand a few minutes to make easier to roll out. Roll out on lightly floured cloth-covered board to fit a 9-in. pie pan. Place loosely in pie pan . . . leaving ½-in. extending over edge of pan. Build up fluted edge.

Pie Tips

1. FOR A FULL PIE without danger of spilling, place pastry-lined pan on pulled-out oven rack . . . fill pie, and push rack in carefully.

2. TO TEST "DONENESS" OF PUMPKIN FILLING . . . insert silver knife near edge of pie. If the knife comes out clean, the filling is done.

Mrs. Anderson weeps at inquest. Mrs. Marsh ignores her husband (left) as she takes stand.

WIFE STANDS BY 'KILLER'; NEW LOVE TURNS COLD. Drama enters the Rockford, Ill., inquest in which Glenn Marsh is being held in connection with the death of Vernon Anderson and his father-in-law, Grant Muhrlein, as Marsh's wife testifies against him but declares she will "stand beside him until the end." At the same time, Mrs. Katherine Anderson, who was allegedly held captive by Marsh following the murder of her husband and father, reportedly claims her love for Marsh, described in torrid love letters, is dead.

STORM LASHES NEW ENGLAND

Rain, Sleet, Snow and Wind of Hurricane Force Causes $1,000,000 Damage.

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, Nov. 13—Wreckage littered New England coastal communities today in the wake of a howling northeast rain, sleet and snow storm that reached hurricane force in gusts in southeastern areas last night.

The roaring winds whipped up tides that undermined and demolished seacoast cottages and commercial structures, inundated sections of several communities, wrecked at least one fishing trawler, battered other craft at moorings and pounded seawalls.

Hundreds of power and telephone lines went down before the blow, leaving many communities in darkness overnight and numerous homes, equippde with fuel oil furnaces, without heat.

At least two deaths were attributed to the storm. David Mathieu, 51, former Augusta, Me., police commissioner, was killed in the collision of his car and a truck outside Augusta, and a six-year-old boy was killed by a car in Pawtucket, R. I.

In the Cape Cod area, which appeared hardest hit, five towers of the civil aeronautics administration radio installation, which provides a high frequency beam from Transatlantic flights, were felled.

Ohio C. of C. Opposes Tax-Free Cooperatives

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13—The stand of Ohio's Chamber of Commerce against tax exemptions for most farm cooperatives today was in the records of the house ways and means committee.

George D. Brabson of Findlay, tax attorney for the Ohio Oil Co., outlined the Ohio Chamber's position at a committee hearing yesterday.

He said the chamber wants congress to remove tax exemptions for cooperatives selling goods and services for profit, but fully approve exemptions for strictly mutual cooperatives, whose members are farmers or fruit growers.

Brabson asserted more than 50 per cent of the present-day cooperatives are of the non-farm class. He said the original intent of the cooperatives tax exemption law has been broadened by administrative decisions to include almost any type of association related in any way to the business needs of farming.

HUGHES

(buying of materials), testified yesterday that he and his wife ran up a $90,000 "paper profit" after acquiring $4,000,000 worth of bonds on "margin."

This testimony came during the committee's inquiry into Meyers' relations with Hughes in connection with the millionaire plane builder's $40,000,000 contracts to build two new-type aircraft.

The Hughes phase of the investigation, Ferguson announced late yesterday, was being put aside until Saturday. Today and tomorrow, he added, would be given over to the "new" matter.

Ferguson is chairman of the subcommittee handling these inquiries.

The war investigating committee did not develop yesterday where Meyers got the money to buy bonds on margin. But Ferguson told newsmen the deal required $40,000 in cash.

Small Cash Outlay

Under the purchase procedure the general outlined, he was required to put up only one per cent of the par value of the bonds, with the balance borrowed from the banks at one per cent interest. The bonds paid two per cent, so he was able to double his investment at par.

If the bonds went above par, as they did, margin buyers could double their money for each point of advance.

Meyers testified he consulted with then Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr., before buying bonds, and that Morgenthau told him "he didn't see how I could go wrong" on the deal. Meyers said it was his recollection that Marriner Eccles, chairman of the federal reserve board, told him the same thing.

Both Morgenthau and Eccles issued vigorous denials. Morgenthau called Meyers' testimony "an outright lie."

SUMMATIONS SET TODAY IN ROGER WILLIAMS TRIAL

By The Associated Press

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Nov. 13—The defense and prosecution will sum up their case today as the first degree murder trial of Roger Williams, 33, Lakeview handyman, resumes before three common pleas judges.

Williams was found to be "now sane" yesterday after the judges heard testimony of five physicians, including two psychiatrists. Court then was adjourned.

The defendant already has pleaded guilty to a first degree murder indictment in the slaying of waitress Minta Webb Rothwell at Indian Lake last May.

House Sub Committee Visits Ohio Factories

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., Nov. 13—A house armed services sub committee studying synthetic rubber production visited more plants here today preparatory to opening hearings tomorrow.

The group, headed by Rep. Shafer (R-Mich), is on a two-week tour of synthetic plants throughout the country. It will hold a public hearing tomorrow in Barberton and another here, Saturday.

Shafer asserted last night that "it is silly" for the justice department to place anti-trust charges against major rubber companies and their executives.

Speaking at a dinner held for the committee by rubber concerns in this area, he said:

"So far as I am concerned, Attorney General Tom Clark can go to hell."

The justice department last August accused eight of the nation's largest rubber companies of price fixing.

LEFT-WING HIT BY RUETHER VICTORIES

By The Associated Press

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 13—Walter Reuther's impressive victories in the United Auto Workers elections shot new strength today into the growing campaign of CIO leadership to push down Communist influence in CIO unions.

President Reuther's forces now have captured the four top offices of the 900,000-member UAW-CIO.

Today in more elections at the UAW convention, they seemed certain to get a majority for the 22-man executive board for the first time.

These facts have sharp meaning for the whole CIO, in the following ways:

First, by example. The UAW's waning Communist minority was on the losing side of the fight. There are Communist groups in certain other CIO unions, too. Their foes have taken new encouragement.

Second, by putting Reuther in a stronger position to support Philip Murray, president of the CIO who has been gradually — and more openly—applying the pressure on the CIO's left-wing.

Here are the UAW's four top leaders for the next year; president, Reuther, who was reelected without serious opposition; secretary-traesurer, Emil Mazey, who deposed George Addes; vice president, Richard Gosser, who beat R. J. Thomas; vice president, John Livingston, who beat Richard Leonard in the fourth election last night.

GOSSER PROMINENT IN GALION NEGOTIATIONS

Richard Gosser, as regional director for the UAW, figured in negotiation of the agreement that ended the 75-day strike at the North Electric company at Galion. He had been regional director since 1942 as well as a member of the UAW Executive Board. In addition, he has served on the Toledo labor-management-citizens commitee ,a voluntary conciliation agency that has had considerable success in calming labor difficulties in that area.

The clock and special lighting effects are arranged by D. A. Brown of the Brown Radio Service.

In conclusion, the Harding band will maneuver into an "H" in salute to Harding school and the hometown fans.

Pep Rally Set Tonight for Game

In preparation for the game, a pep rally is being staged by the Boosters clubs of both Harding and St. Mary schools in cooperation with station WMRN tonight at the broadcasting station on North Main street.

Final program and parade arrangements were announced today with the Harding band scheduled to leave from Central Junior High school at 7:10 p. m. and march to the station. The program is scheduled to get under way about 8 o'clock and will be broadcast. A large bonfire is being prepared.

Talks will be given by Mayor Harry L. Dowler, E. E. Holt, superintendent of schools, A. C. May, principal of Harding; Dewey N. Bohyer, athletic director; E. Paul Huffman, announcer at the Harding games and teacher at Harding; Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V.F., pastor of St. Mary Catholic church; William "Pete" Howison, coach of Harding and his assistants, and Gene Fetter, coach of St. Mary and his assistants. The two coaches will in turn introduce the members of their respective teams. Cheerleaders from both schools will also be on hand.

John Pickerel, president of the Harding Booster club, and L. K. McGinnis, new president of the St. Mary Booster club, will give short talks. A fireworks display will also be a part of the rally.

COMMUNISTS ORDER MARSEILLE STRIKE

By The Associated Press

MARSEILLE, Nov. 13—Troops and mobile guards were called out to patrol the streets of Marseille today as Communist labor leaders issued a general strike call following a day of rioting in which one person was wounded fatally and six others hurt.

While Communists claimed their strike call had met a wide response among factory hands, indications as the day advanced were workers were sticking to their jobs except in trades in which their unions previously had ordered strikes.

PARIS, Nov. 13—Flour mills workers in France went out on strike today when the government failed to meet their demand for a 20 per cent increase in salaries.

By The United Press

MILAN, Nov. 13—A state of near terror gripped Milan today in the wake of Communist-led rioting, the sacking of an anti-Communist newspaper plant and an attack on a police station.

Heavy police patrols were alerted for new violence as the Communists ordered a three-hour work stoppage while they buried one of their members killed two nights ago. The killing of the Communist was one of the reasons for the trouble yesterday and last night.

O.W.U. Professor Speaks At School of Religion

At the School of Religion and Life of Epworth Methodist church and Methodist churches of the county at Epworth church Wednesday night, Rev. Russell Bayliff, professor of religion and sociology of Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware, spoke on "Tools for the Task of Teaching." His message was given at the forum hour which followed classes. He began by citing experiences of two world famous missionary figures, and listed qualities necessary for successful teaching. These, he said, are a new perspective, being "sure of what one is aiming at, or trying to do," persistence, a "drive to keep at the task, a belief in it, even when feeling like giving up," patience, the "ability to wait for results, but doing something constructive while waiting." He closed with the thought that "patterns are formed for later life in the first six years of a child's existence," and that it is "very important" that the child be guided in the right direction during that time.

Galion Kiwanis Hear Green Camp Teacher

Special to The Star

GALION—Chaplain of the 26th Infantry, Third Army, and having seen service overseas for 22 months, Merlin Probst who now lives in Galion and teaches in Green Camp schools, was guest speaker Tuesday for the Galion Kiwanis club.

Speaking on "Our National Heritage," Probst said "We must offer something to the world if we want the world to be in agreement with our way of life." Our heritage, he pointed out, is the sum total of the lives that have been invested in our accomplishments and our failure, as well.

"Spiritual leadership is one of the best things we have to offer," Probst declared. "It is proven that the nation that forgets God will perish." He cited instances to substantiate this statement. Rev. R. R. Elliker, pastor of First Reformed church, conducted a special service in commemoration of Armistice day.

BAPTIST INSTITUTE ON EVANGELISM HELD

150 Attend Regional Sessions at Trinity Church.

Approximately 150 attended sessions at Trinity Baptist church Wednesday of a Baptist regional training evangelism institute for the Ohio central area. A team of church leaders from several states was in charge. Afternoon and evening conference sessions were held, and a dinner fellowship hour was included. Besides pastors and lay members from Marion area churches of the denomination, others sending representatives included Mt. Gilead, Mansfield and Lima. The team in charge was to leave today for a similar meeting tonight at Toledo.

These meetings are a part of the Crusade for Christ Through Evangelism movement, a two-year program of the denomination.

Afternoon conferences were on women's work and pastors' and laymen's activities, and evening group meetings were on various phases of the general theme including reaching of present church membership, unchurched and underprivileged groups, building new membership, and information on techniques for the crusade for pastors and lay leaders. In charge of these conferences were Rev. Bryan F. Archibald of Springfield, Mass., Rev. Verner L. Olson of Oakland, Calif., Rev. W. D. Golightly of Scranton, Pa., and Rev. J. W. Poorman, Ohio director of evangelism and stewardship. The women's work conference was led by Mrs. Clyde Matheny of Columbus, president of the Ohio Women's Missionary society. Rev. E. J. Holt, pastor of a Baptist church in Auburn, Maine, was in charge of a closing service of consecration. He spoke on the Bible basis of evangelism. At the dinner hour, Dr. Paul Judson Morris of Granville, executive secretary of the Ohio Baptist convention, who was in charge of the institute, introduced members of the team who spoke on various phases of the campaign being considered in the conferences, and gave outlines on procedure. Women of the host church prepared the dinner. At the final service, closing prayers were by Miss Emma Osterholt of Fite Memorial Baptist church, Marion, and by Rev. J. B. Holloway, host pastor.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wabbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.—Adv.

INCOMES IN U. S. REACH NEW RECORD HIGH MARK

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13—American incomes soared to an all time high in September, the conference department reported yesterday.

September personal income rolled up to an "extraordinary annual rate" of $210,300,000,000, the department said, explaining that the annual rate is determined by multiplying the seasonally adjusted total for the month by 12.

The department said the outsize figure was due largely to the heavy cashing of GI terminal leave bonds in September.

Another reason was the upswing in factory payrolls in September to an annual rate of $45,000,000,000, bettering even the wartime highs reached in early 1945.

Hunters Return From Trip to Pennsylvania

A Marion man and his son, Rivera L. Curren and Richard Curren of 736 Davids street, returned home this week from a 10-day hunting trip at Sturgeon Falls, Ontario, during which they bagged a 150 pound black bear, a seven point buck deer and a two-year-old deer. Mr. Curren is employed in the drafting department at the Marion Power Shovel Co. plant, and his son is a member of the senior class of Harding High school.

RAILROAD UNIONS PLAN POLITICAL ORGANIZATION

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13—Executives of 19 railroad unions set out today to form a political organization for the 1948 elections without running afoul of the Taft-Hartley act.

As a starter, they met as individuals last night and set up "Railroad Labor's Political league." Officers will be opened in Washington separate from those of the Railway Labor Executives association, composed of the 21 railroad unions.

The two brotherhoods which did not take part are A. F. Whitney's Trainmen and Alvanley Johnston's Locomotive Engineers.

TO INCREASE CAR OUTPUT

By The Associated Press

RECORD WHEAT CROP POSSIBLE

Bumper Yield Still in Sight Despite Late Planting in Plains States.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 — A bumper wheat crop is still possible next year despite a serious seeding delay in the great plains, agriculture department officials said today.

A department crop report yesterday said about 25 per cent of the intended wheat acreage in Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado and New Mexico remained unseeded Nov. 1 because of critically dry weather.

These six states produced about 49 per cent of this year's record crop of 1,406,000,000 bushels.

The report said seeding has progressed well, however, on what now appears to be an increased acreage in all other important producing areas.

Officials said assuming next year's production in the six drouth-affected states is only one half this year's, it still would be possible, on the basis of present prospects, to harvest a total crop of at least 1,000,000,000 bushels.

The United States has produced only four crops of a billion bushels or more, and they were grown during the past four years. Wheat output averaged 890,000,000 bushels for the 1936-45 period.

While officials would like to see another record crop because of the world grain shortage, they point out that a billion-bushel yield still would permit this country to export a much larger quantity of wheat in the 1948 crop year than it normally shipped before the war.

The crop report emphasized that wheat prospects are particularly good in the Pacific northwest, in most Rocky Mountain states and in the east.

"The outlook is favorable," the report said, "on an acreage which may be larger than last year in these high-yielding areas." Yields per acre usually run considerably lower in the plains states than in other wheat growing sections.

Many fruits not related to the apple bear that name; Balsam apple, custard apple, rose apple, and pineapple.

EXAMINER IS SPEAKER AT Y'S MEN'S MEETING

Guest speaker at the Y's Men's club weekly dinner meeting Wednesday at the Y.M.C.A. was William Corbet of Marion, who is with the bureau of inspection and supervision of public affairs.

He spoke on the work of examining offices and cited a number of cases in their work which explained what they do. He said that there are two main things which the inspectors do, (1) aid in supervision and advise public officials what can be done, and (2) work with the accounting of public money. An open discussion period followed.

Walter Kelsey, vice president, presided for the meeting, and group singing was led by Paul Dowler. The annual Ladies Night dinner party was announced for Wednesday, Nov. 26, at the Y, and arrangements were made for the annual Christmas dinner for the children from the Children's Home to be Dec. 17 at the Y.

Guests besides Mr. Corbett were Mr. Walters of Portsmouth and Mr. Morrison of Columbus. The latter two work in the same capacity as Mr. Corbett under the state auditor.

Thanksgiving Buffet

HOLIDAY BUFFET TABLE . . Honor to the bird . . .

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

You can make this Thanksgiving dinner the best one ever and still contribute to the voluntary food conservation program. The way to do it is to use plentiful foods in attractive ways.

Fortunately for both the food saving campaign and the family budget book there is an abundant supply of vegetables and fruits to help make holiday meals good to look at and good to eat. The more we use these perishable foods here at home the more grain there'll be to send to hungry people abroad.

If you are the hospitable kind of person who invites stray friends to your holiday table you may want to set it buffet style since this often makes serving easier, especially when there are as many as eight to 12. Put up some card tables too, so that guests can help themselves and then sit down at them and cut their turkey in comfort. There isn't a man alive who likes juggling a plate on his knees!

And one more important tip. Please the man of the house and see that the carving knife is sharp enough to do justice both to the carving and the bird!

Start with a fruit cup this year instead of meat or fish hors d'oeuvres with a bread or cracker base. And if you're engaging in a private campaign of your own to conserve time and energy, make the cup of quick-frozen fruits.

Go on to turkey stuffed with potato instead of bread. Make the stuffing by whipping butter or margarine and hot milk into the mashed potatoes; season with finely grated onion, salt and pepper. And serve cranberry jelly, of course. Then ring a menu change by adding baked corn pudding, and bread or rolls will never be missed.

A salad bowl of lettuce and tomatoes with a tangy French dressing can go right on the table with the turkey so that family and guests can help themselves to it whenever they like.

Mincemeat pie with just one crust is the conservation order for dessert.

Here are recipes for the special fruit cup and the corn pudding.

Holiday Fruit Cup

1 package (16 ounce) quick-frozen sliced strawberries, thawed, 1 package (16 ounce) quick-frozen sliced peaches, thawed, 1 package (1 pound) quick-frozen grapefruit sections, thawed, 2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Combine strawberries and peaches. Drain juice from grapefruit sections and add juice to strawberry mixture. Add lemon juice. Place 1-3 to ½ cup of mixture in each sherbet glass. Top each with 2 grapefruit sections (larger sections may be halved). Garnish with maraschino cherries, if desired, and with mint sprigs if available. Eight to 12 servings.

Corn Pudding

1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon all-purpose flour, 1½ teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon sugar, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, 1½ cups milk, 1 teaspoon finely grated onion, 2 eggs, slightly beaten, 1 package (10 ounce) quick-frozen corn, thawed.

Melt butter or margarine over low heat and blend in flour, salt, sugar and pepper. Remove from heat. Add milk slowly, stirring until smooth. Return to medium heat and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Mix in well onion, eggs and corn. Turn into baking dish. Set dish in pan of hot water and bake in moderate over (350 degrees F.) about 1 hour, or until set. Four to six servings. To make eight to 12 servings double amount of ingredients and turn into 2 baking dishes.

HARVESTER CO. PAY DISPUTE SETTLED

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 13—After more than a year's negotiations, wage settlements affecting 5,000 workers in 11 International Harvester plants have been agreed upon. The company estimated the hikes will amount to approximately $365,000 a year.

The wage agreement was announced last night by William J. Reilly, the company's manager of labor relations, who said it would be presented to the International Harvester council of the CIO United Farm Equipment and Metal Workers' Union for ratification, and then submitted to the 11 union locals for approval.

Depending upon job classification and plant where employed, Reilly said, the increases granted range from approximately ½ cent an hour, to 27½ cents. The 5,000 workers involved are among the 40,000 total employes in the 11 Harvester plants.

PROSPECTORS SEARCH FOR LOST GOLD MINES

By The United Press

VANCOUVER, B. C.—If one or more lost gold mines in British Columbia's Pitt River district aren't found within the next year, it won't be the fault of at least three search parties equipped with maps, of the missing mine or mines.

The latest rash of seeking after lost gold mines began some weeks ago when a New Westminster, B. C., resident chartered a helicopter to fly over the area, apparently looking for landmarks to go with his map.

A sign painter here got into the line next. He announced he had a map of the area showing the location of "the" mine. He said he had made some preliminary trips to check a few landmarks, and would make an extensive prospecting trip next year.

More recently, a local radio engineer said he also had a map of the area with the location of "the" mine plainly marked. He told the United Press he was planning a full scale expedition next summer.

His map and the sign-painter's map, however, didn't quite jibe. That led old-timers to remark that there were two lost gold mines in the region—the Golden Sheaf and the Yellowjacket.

The grizzled ancients said both supposed mother lodes were discovered near the turn of the century. They said the Golden Sheaf, of bloody history, has produced nuggets the size of walnuts.

The Yellowjacket, the old-time prospectors said, was also rich in the yellow metal, but historyless. They said its finder merely died of natural causes before he got around to filling a claim.

Meantime, the three prospecting parties rushed their plans to crowd the Pitt River area with contemporary fortune hunters.

Eagles To Attend Training School

Plans were made Wednesday night for six members of Buckeye Aerie No. 337, F. O. Eagles, to attend an annual meeting and school for trustees and worthy presidents of Zone 2 to be held Sunday at Delaware. Those attending will be Omer Williams, worthy president, and Charles Way, Bert Gilmore, Lee Collins, Howard Wharton and Jim Lewis, trustees.

Five applications for membership were read to be initiated in a class Nov. 26. An announcement was made of the annual prospective members stag dinner to be held Friday at 8 p. m. with all members and guests welcome. Special entertainment will be presented.

John Duffey, entertainment chairman, announced an old fashioned minstrel show to be held Monday, Nov. 24, at the hall for all Eagle members and their families.

Hours for Sunday, starting next Sunday will be from 12 o'clock noon to 10:30 p. m. it was announced.

FOX NOT SO SMART

By The United Press

DETROIT—A sly red fox picked out the wrong hunter to leer at. Frank Rhea sat down to rest after a luckless day of pheasant hunting. The fox crept within a few feet of him and sat there grinning. The hunter shot the animal and claimed the $5 bounty.

COWS MAKE PIGS OF SELVES

By The United Press

MONROE, Ind.—Cows shouldn't try to eat like hogs. Two cows on the Ed Rich farm got into the hog house and ate too much hog supplement feed. One cow died and the other became seriously ill.

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

WIVES often wonder out loud why their husbands never listen to them.

The reason is very simple. They quit listening because they can't understand their wives.

Why? Don't their wives speak English? No, they don't speak English. And if their husbands are Chinese, they don't speak Chinese either. Nor do they speak the words if their husbands are cooing pigeons.

Women—and particularly wives—develop a language of their own which bears about the same relation to the language of men as [illegible] does to a clear day.

Hal Boyle

There are many theories as to why, but I have my own. I think it is because of shock. A woman generally makes only one clear cut decision in her life. That is at marriage time when she replies to the minister's question with an emphatic "I do!"

When she discovers what a lifelong stew this simple declarative sentence has gotten her into, she retreats into herself and becomes a Delphic oracle. You will have a hard time getting her ever to say anything definite again. She has learned the cost of clarity.

So, knowing how terribly final decisions are, she begins to hedge. Her mind is clear as a bell, but she forever hates to commit herself on questions of choice.

Gradually her language becomes obscure, indirect and confusing to men, who understand words only in their dictionary meanings.

HIS WIFE'S VOCABULARY

had become particularly a crossword puzzle to one literal-minded young husband I know. When she asked him prettily one morning, "Don't you want some more bacon, dear?" He reached over and speared the last slice on the plate, complimenting himself on her interest in his welfare.

But when he glanced across the table he met an angry glare.

"You selfish thing, you!" she said. "Always thinking of your own stomach."

The surprised young man had failed to learn the primary distinction in the marital language. This is, that a husband says "Pass the butter" if he wants some, but a woman asks by saying, "Won't you have some butter?"

This oriental influence in the language is probably a hangover from the time Genghis Khan raided Europe.

I will give you another example. If a wife casually mentions that the girl next door is "really quite pretty, don't you think?", she may mean any of the following things:

(1) Merely that she does think the girl is pretty. (This simple explanation is highly unlikely.)

(2) That it is too bad the girl is really so homely.

(3) "Oh, so you have been giving her the eye, you two-timer."

(4) That she is considering marrying the girl off to one of your bachelor friends is an attempt to break up your Friday night poker games.

(5) That the girl is pretty, but her mother plays a lousy hand at bridge.

(6) That it has been a long time since you said that she herself (your wife) is pretty.

REALIZING THAT EVEN the simplest statement of his wife may cloak half a dozen hidden meanings or be put out as bait to draw him into a controversy he can't hope to win, the wise husband early learns to draw back into his mental mist for shelter. He ceases to listen, or pretends to.

In 5,000 years of civilization male inventiveness has come up with only two expressions to cope with the mysterious language developed by wives.

To be safe, you can say "Uh-h-h-h-hhhhhh."

Or—even better—"h-m-m-m-mmmmmmmmmp."

Anything else may get you in trouble.

LIPPMANN

with the west. There is no prospect of eastern Europe's being able to become self-sufficient in capital goods—in steel products, machine tools, electrical equipment.

The Communists in these countries know this quite as well as anyone else, and there is little doubt, I think, that they will work for the resumption of trade as they develop exportable surpluses and as the western countries are able to make available capital goods.

If we are wise, we shall encourage the resumption of this trade, which is fundamental to the success of the Marshall plan. We shall rescind any vetoes which may have been interposed on productive loans to eastern Europe. We shall remove the impression that we frown upon the negotiation of trade agreements. We shall abstain from contemplating the notion of a separate peace with a part of Germany which would make permanent the provisional division of Europe into two military spheres.

We shall bring our diplomatic planning into harmony, not with an unduly low estimate of how to "sell" the program to Congress but with the realities of the European recovery program—to which our people are about to make the largest contribution which any nation has ever in time of peace made for the general interest of mankind.

Two Iberia Churches Set Fall Meetings

IBERIA—The Iberia Federated church will feature a series of evening services every other week, according to Charles McAnall, representative of the church session. First service will be held Sunday evening, Nov. 16 at 7 p. m., and will feature a discussion group and prayer session on the topic, "Do You Have a Plan for Living?" A short Thanksgiving service will be conducted. Dr. Ivan Wilkins, general presbyter, of Columbus, will be the guest minister at the regular morning worship hour.

The Iberia Methodist church will open its annual fall revival services on Wednesday night and will continue through Nov. 30 each evening except Saturday. Two well known evangelists, Eva Clauson and Celeste Richardsen, conduct the services, based on the theme, "A Spirit Filled Church Working for a Christian Community." Miss Clausen is a native of Denmark, a member of the Friends church and has been a Christian worker for the past 15 years. Miss Richardson, African M. E. church member, is a talented contralto singer and pianist, native of Pennsylvania.

ATTEND STATE MEETING

BUCYRUS—Approximately 150 Crawford county Grangers will go to Columbus this week for the 75th anniversary and to receive the 7th degree of the order at the state meeting. James Krauter, county deputy, Mrs. Harry Kurtz, juvenile deputy and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Fauser and Mrs. Annabelle Price, delegates will head the group going from this county.

Most male birds have their brightest plumage in spring and early summer, taking on duller colors later.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

NOT even by the catch of a breath did Mary Veritzen betray any undue interest in my startling announcement. Her manner was perfect, that of a woman hearing a surprising piece of news about the fiance of a dear friend. But she is so finished an actress that I caught myself wondering if there were anything underneath the surprised exclamations with which she greeted my news.

"Georges in the city!" she said. "How perfectly marvelous for Olina! Has she seen him, and is he all right, not wounded or maimed, or blind, or anything? It would be too terrible for her if he were, although I think Olina wouldn't care if he came home in a basket, just so she could be with him."

"Yes, she is most devoted to him," I agreed, "and fortunately, Georges hasn't a mark on him, and appears to be in a good health. But Olina hasn't seen him yet. He is in hiding at the Underwoods."

"I take it you've seen him," she said.

"Yes, only an hour or so ago," I told her.

"Is he the same old hell-raiser?" she asked carelessly, so carelessly I wondered, "or has he settled down?"

"I don't think he's quite so devil-may-may," I told her, although his exuberance isn't much subdued."

"It won't be," she said with a gamin grin, "until he's ninety-nine."

"Probably not," I agreed, and then she looked at me with her eyes suddenly keen and searching.

"Look here, Auntie Madge!" she said. "There's something screwy about this. Why is this news of Georges something I have to be told? Why should it specially interest me?"

I made my voice cooly indifferent.

"The news that Georges had come back wouldn't hold any interest for you, I grant," I said. "But you've only heard the beginning."

She settled back against the chair cushions, and was relieved that my answer had lulled whatever suspicion she was beginning to harbor.

"I'm all ears," she said. "There's even one sprouting in the middle of my forehead."

"You'll need them all," I told her, and then launched once more into the saga of Georges' being sent to the refuge of the Sag Harbor farmhouse with Mr. "K." and me, of his appeal to Olina for an immediate marriage, and of my father's plan for a camouflaged pretty family wedding under the guise of a house party Dicky and I should give for the Philip Veritzens.

"And the Noel Veritzens?" Mary said, the query patently automatic.

"My father meant that, of course," I said. "But Aunt Katharine thinks the excitement of a jaunt and festivities like that would be too much for you. She thinks you're tiring easily, and that you ought to conserve all your strength for the study of your lines."

"I like that!" Mary said. 'Laying me on a shelf as if I were a bundle of waste paper, tied up for the salvage drive! Well, I won't be tied! Look here, didn't you just say that my darling step mama-in-law was going to engineer the wedding, with the help of Katie, Jim, and the Ticers? There'll probably be mayhem and arson with that combination."

I laughed at her nonsense, but she swept on.

"And that means you won't have a thing to do but write," she said. "When Olga engineers, she engineers, as you very well know. And I won't have any chores, I'm sure. So what's to hinder you and me sneaking off to some rabbit hole where you can pound your typewriter, and I can cudgel my so-called brain into remembering my lines?"

"I don't think there's anything to hinder us doing just that," I told her. "I judge you already have made up your mind to attend the wedding."

"You're tootin' shootin' right I have," she said. Then as something in my voice evidently registered in her brain, she leaned forward, looking at me intently.

"Look here!" she said. "You're holding something back."

"No, I'm not," I protested. "I've given you all the overtones."

"But not the undertones," she said quickly. "You know something you don't want to tell me, and yet that you feel I ought to know. Look here! Does Noel know about Georges coming back, and how did he take it?"

BIBLE CONFERENCE. Dr. William L. Pettingill, above, of Wilmington, Del., will open a Bible conference in Emmanuel Baptist church Friday night to continue through Sunday. Known as a Bible teacher, he was one of eight consultant editors when Dr. C. I. Scofield compiled the Scofield Reference Bible. He is author of a number of books which are considered among the best Bible references, it was stated. Some time ago, Dr. Pettingill spoke here at the pavilion at Garfield park under auspices of the Young People's Fellowship club. The three conference services will be open to the public, it was announced.

An American armored division in World War II could hurl 400,000 pounds of ammunition in half an hour.

Officers Elected By New Scout Cub Pack

Richard Morris was elected cub master at a meeting of the recently organized Cub Pack No. 39, Boy Scouts, Monday night at Emmanuel Baptist church. John Craver was elected committee chairman, Mrs. Eva Condron, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Ruth Grace, reporter. Dr. C. E. Hershey, pastor, led in devotions and the meeting was conducted by Fred Sprlock, cub field commissioner. Bert Grogg was appointed "dad" of Den No. 1.

The November theme is Mexico and a program was presented centering on the subject. Dr. Hershey talked on his recent trip to Mexico and a song was sung in Spanish by Larry Coy, Philip Walter, Thomas Condron and Richard Grace, in costume. Paul Hinamon, den chief, presented the following advancement awards: Richard Grace, silver arrow; Ray Grogg, bear pin and emblem, one gold and nine silver arrows; Larry Coy, one silver arrow and den flags to Dens 1, 2 and 3. The December theme, "Gifts," was presented to the pack.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

You Can Be Sea-Sick on Land.

...have to go to sea to ...sea-sickness.

...s, whether we travel ...r, auto or plane, be... ...ey and feel that "queasy" ...the pit of the stomach ...ng gets vomiting, long be... ...reach the end of our journey. Because this particular type of discomfort is no respecter of vehicles, today's doctors speak of it as motion sickness.

Why these symptoms occur in some people and not in others is an unanswered question, but there may be contributing factors such as overeating or constipation. Nevertheless, many people are never affected by motion sickness while as many others are upset by the gentlest movements of the most stable forms of transportation.

Since so many people are affected in this way, a large number of drugs have been investigated in the hope that they would control motion sickness.

Tests of these drugs have been made on persons in whom the motion sickness has been produced in ordinary swings. For example, one group of person was put in a swing, which was kept in motion for half an hour. It was found that a third of those tested vomited within a half hour after the swinging. Then the drugs were tested to see if they would prevent these vomiting attacks.

It would appear that certain drugs, derived from what is known as belladonna are effective in the prevention and treatment of motion sickness. The most effective single drug is known as hyoscine. However, a mixture of hyoscine and hyoscamine usually can be given with less danger of unpleasant reaction than can an equal dose of hyoscine alone.

It has also been found that tolerance to these drugs varies so that the dose must be regulated for each individual. The protection obtained by the usual dose lasts for from six to ten hours. Children do not tolerate these drugs as well as do adults. That is why the doctor reduces the dose for children considerably.

Certain of the drugs known as the barbiturates have also been found effective in the prevention of motion sickness and in its treatment. However, it would appear that the best results with this type of drug are obtained if treatment is started twenty-four hours before exposure to the motion is to occur. It appears desirable to give the preparation with meals.

The treatment should be continued during long trips, but it would appear that protection against motion sickness lasts from fifteen to eighteen hours after it has been administered.

Overdosage will cause sleepiness just as with the barbiturates, and the dose must be regulated in each case by the doctor.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

H. S.: What causes white spots to form on the arms and hands? I have noticed them recently. They do not look nice but don't hurt. Are they caused by a vitamin deficiency?

Answer: It is likely that you have leukoderma, the exact cause of which is not known. Too much exposure to the sunlight may be partly responsible. Heredity is thought to be a factor by some investigators. Leukoderma is also present in lues but this is not a common cause.

There is not a great deal that can be done for this condition. Certain drugs are given internally, such as arsenic and extracts of the thyroid and suprarenal glands. Applying walnut juice to the white patches is a good method of treatment, or bleaching the pigment around the white patches with a solution containing mercuric chloride, alcohol, and water in proper solution and painting it on as the physician may direct. If the skin becomes irritated as a result of the use of this solution, it should be stopped and cold cream or some bland oil, such as sweet oil, put on the irritated skin. This solution makes the white patches less noticeable.

This condition is not due to a vitamin deficiency.

Radio May Promote Boxing for Telecasts

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Nov. 13—Crosley Broadcasting Corp. today planned to apply for a license to stage boxing matches after local promoters refused permission to telecast their shows.

James D. Shouse, Crosley president, said the broadcasting firm did not want to compete with established promoters, but decided on the move when the promoters agreed to telecasts only if the station would pay for all unsold seats.

"Television is no good for the boxing game," Sam Becker, one of the promoters, said.

FESLER CONSIDERS 2 LINEUP CHANGES

End Dorsey, Tackle Kirk May Start Saturday.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13—Two new faces may appear in the Ohio State line against Illinois Saturday but neither change will be dictated by injuries, Coach Wes Fesler indicated today.

Bob Dorsey, 195-pound Negro from Houstin, Tex., handled right end in yesterday's drill, while Brent Kirk, who once played at Bowling Green university, was at left tackle.

Dorsey, although not particularly fast, has tremendous hands that make him an excellent pass receiver, and Fesler obviously will need pass catchers against Illinois.

Curly Morrison, sub right end and the Buckeye's No. 1 receiver, was home in bed yesterday with influenza. Morrison's illness follows injuries to key backfield performers like fullback Joe Whitler and right half Alex Verdova.

Both Dave Bonnie and Jim Hague have started at left end this fall.

Kirk, a standout high school performer while at New Philadelphia, may unseat Jack Wilson from the starting position the converted fullback has held season-long.

Verdova and left tackle Chuck Fazio apparently are lost for the season since team physicians told Fesler it will be "a month to six weeks" before Verdova's ribs will be in good shape," and Fazio's broken thumb will be in a cast another four weeks.

Because of the series of injuries, Fesler refused to allow his boys to scrimmage yesterday.

PLEASANT ALUMNI SLATED

Pleasant High school basketball team will play their alumni in the school gym Nov. 21, with a reserve game slated to start at 7:30 p. m. and the varsity game at 8:30. Practice for the alumni will be held Nov. 19 at 330 p. m.

Tackle Injury Chills Harding Hope For Win Tomorrow

FRANKIE GROVES, 16-year-old high school girl, tackles a ball carrier during practice of the Stinnett, Tex., High school football team. Frankie, who asked to play right tackle on the team, will get her wish Friday night in the game with Groom. "I'm serious about this," she said. "It's not a stunt." (AP Wirephoto)

Bob Ralston's Elbow Injury May Keep Him Out of Fremont Ross Fray.

A big blow to Harding hopes for an upset win over the strong Fremont Ross gridders Friday night turned up in practice early this week when Bob Ralston developed a cartilage injury in his elbow.

Prexy Coach Pete Howison said Ralston would be under heat lamps this week and may be ready to play Friday night, but he wasn't counting on it. Howison didn't name a replacement and was afraid to think about it.

Ralston, a left tackle, has been the strong man in the Harding line this year along with center Bob Short.

All-Ohio Contenders

Short, Coach Howison's choice for All-Ohio center, will be playing opposite another All-Ohio contender in Fremont's center Bob Heid.

Center Heid, a senior, weighs 170 pounds, or three pounds more than Short, and is stacked an inch taller at six-feet-one. Both boys have turned in stellar defensive games this year, and both have been tough on offense.

Heid, besides calling defensive signals, does downfield blocking assignments for Fremont on offense. Last week he intercepted a pass and galloped to a touchdown as Fremont whipped Toledo Scott, 27-0.

Heid is a grade A student as well as an outstanding athlete.

Kicking Artist

Fremont right end, Sam Sims, honorable mention on The Associated Press All-Ohio squad last year, is the Fremont placement artist. He has made good 15 of 24 conversion attempts. Sims, a six-two Negro, weighs 180 pounds.

Another Fremont stalwart on the line is chunky right guard Bill Farver who is touted as the toughest guard in the Fremont circle of football acquaintances.

Ross right halfback Tex Fray rivals Harding's Clarence Smith as an open field runner. Fray stands five-eleven and weighs 156 pounds. He does most of the Fremont running.

Triple Threater

Fremont's other halfback, Walter "Bobo" Weinhardt, passes, punts and runs for the Rossmen. He has a punting average of about 35 yards and is a deadly passer. If the Fremonters receive the opening kickoff, Bobo will play fullback.

Prexy Coach Pete Howison said that if his boys play the errorless ball they played at Sandusky last week — they scored every time they got possession but once—and then if they play an inspired game, they'll stand a chance of being the second team to topple Fremont this year. Maybe Harding ought to go about shouting "Rip Ross" this week as Notre Dame shouted "Annihilate Army."

Pep Rally Tonight

Tonight a giant pep rally, staged by the Harding and St. Mary Boosters clubs and WMRN, is scheduled to instill the needed fire into the Prexy machine. Plans call for the Harding band to lead a march up North Main street to the studio where the rally will get under way at 8.

A sellout crowd of 4,300 is expected to attend the season-closer tomorrow night.

Dante Levelli of the Cleveland Browns caught 40 passes in 1946—eight of them for touchdowns.

STAR ERROR CORRECTED

An error in Tuesday's Star credited Prospect with a poor basketball season for the past six years and said Coach Glenn Keller replaced Coach Paul Keller. Keller quit in 1942 and the Prospect cagers have been under par for but four years, according to Keller.

Free Substitution OK Says Ohio State Coach

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 13—Football Coach Wes Fesler of Ohio State believes the unlimited substitution rule is a boon for both the players and teams.

It has allowed a lot of boys to play college football who wouldn't get into the game under the old rules," Fesler told the Journal Quarterback club here last night.

"And it's helped an awful lot for teams like ours, with several players strong on offense and weak on defense, and vice-versa," he added.

However, Fesler said, his Buckeyes were not trying to take advantage of the rules when the celebrated "12th man" play, that eventually enabled Ohio State to defeat Northwestern, 7 to 6, came up last week.

MEEKER CAGERS TO PLAY

Meeker High school basketball team will play the York Center team at the Marion Y.M.C.A. Friday at 7:30 p. m.

CAGERS PLAY AT HOME

New Bloomington basketball team will play their first home game tomorrow night with Mt. Victory. They dropped their season opener to Edison, 58-28, Tuesday night.

Alyn Beals of the San Francisco 49ers caught 40 passes, 10 of them for touchdowns, in 1946.

Pacific Coast League Wants Higher Status

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 — The ... weather won't be the only ... that will keep the baseball ... warm on chilly December ... the dates when the minor ... convention holds its an... meeting in Miami.

The request by the Pacific Coast ... league for higher classification—a step toward major league ... —and raising the draft price ... $10,000 to $25,000, as well as player eligibility from four to six years, appears certain to face stiff opposition from some of the other minor leagues, namely the International league and American Association.

Otto Graham tossed 17 touchdown passes for the Cleveland Browns in 1946.

Small Game Hunting Season Opens Saturday

Rabbits, Pheasants Scarce In Some Areas of County.

The day thousands of Ohio outdoorsmen await annually—opening of the rabbit and pheasant hunting season—comes Saturday at 9 a. m.

Hunting prospects in Marion county as in most of the state are not good. Leonard Green, local hunting authority and proprietor of Green's Sporting Goods store described the prospects as "rugged" and said there appeared to be fewer hunters this year.

Prospective hunters are keeping their guns in the closet, he said, because of the game scarcity and because the new time for hunting does not allow sportsmen to go out for an after work "quickie" in the afternoon as in former years. The new law limits hunting from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Floods Kill Game

Green said that certain areas of Marion county, particularly flat lands that were covered with water in early summer, were scarce of game, but in other areas, the pheasants and rabbits were at least as plentiful as last year.

He counted 50 pheasants in one flock recently in southwest Marion county toward Richwood.

O. H. Neimeyer of Prospect, Marion county game warden, said several major changes in hunting rules have been made this year:

►Time changes — Rabbits and pheasants may be taken during the open season from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. only. Raccoon may be taken from 6 p. m. to 6 a. m. of the following day only during the open season.

►Pheasant season—Nov. 15 to Nov. 22 inclusive.

►Rabbit season—Nov. 15 to Dec. 13 inclusive.

►Grouse season — Nov. 15 to Nov. 29 inclusive.

►Trapping—All traps must be marked with waterproof labels giving the owner's name. No trapping or hunting is allowed on Sundays and traps must be sprung Sundays.

►Night hunting—Raccoon hunters must carry a white light visible all around the horizon for at least a quarter of a mile.

Other changes appear in the digest of game laws published by the division of conservation and natural resources and may be picked up in any sporting goods store.

Bag Limit Same

As was the case last year, bag limits on pheasants is two cocks and two in possession after the first day. The limit for rabbits is the same as last year—four in a day and four in possession after the first day.

Both Green and Neimeyer indicated that the early summer wet weather was responsible for a decrease in small game population and that crows and foxes ranked next as killers.

Green said he had run across a number of foxes just west of Marion early this summer and 19 had been taken in two days from that area.

The sheriff's office reports that 172 foxes have been turned in for the $3 bounty this year, and that enough money is left in the county fund to pay for 28 more. Last year at this time all the $600 bounty had been paid out.

Crow bounty paid out by the county auditor's office to date amounts to $145 out of $200 appropriated this year. Last year a total of $163.25 was paid out. Officials in the auditor's office expect more crows to be turned in this fall.

About 20 or 25 deputy game wardens will work with Neimeyer during the season, he said.

Notre Dame Unworried Over Lack of Suitable Opposition

By CHARLES EINSTEIN

International News Service Sports Writer

CHICAGO, Nov. 13—Higher-ups at Notre Dame weren't half so worried as alarmists believed them to be today over the prospect of finding suitable football opposition in the future.

The idea that Frank Leahy is so good a coach that nobody wants to play him met with little but derision on the Irish campus.

There exists at Notre Dame today a group of hard-headed realists who understand perfectly that Michigan won't play 'em because Michigan can make just as much money playing—and beating Pittsburgh.

Pitt Could Improve

But three things can happen, and one of them is inevitable. Michigan, as a sample team, can disintegrate into just a fair ball club over the years. Pittsburgh, as a sample stooge, can improve and become the Pitt powerhouse of old.

If neither of those things happen, there is not going to be much revenue in the Michigan-Pitt game. The problem is basically one of relation to the national economy. The inevitable is this: the postwar spending boom will come to an end.

And when it does, you will sell football games on merit alone.

They realize that at Notre Dame. You can read it in between the lines of Frank Leahy's coaching contract, which wasn't drawn up for 10 years just because 10 is a cute number.

When the big babies of the Big Nine—Minnesota, Illinois, Michigan, Ohio State and Wisconsin—cease making money from padded schedules, then they will consider playing Notre Dame once more.

When they do, Notre Dame will be waiting for them with open arms and the usual Notre Dame football team.

Not Marking Time

Meanwhile, the Irish weren't marking time. Their 1948 schedule, which is to be made public in a month or so, will have not nine but 10 games. Dates haven't been released, but Indiana, poor nephew in the Western conference, will play Notre Dame; so will Iowa, Northwestern and Purdue.

That is four Western conference teams. Presumably, they need the money. Indiana is a newcomer to the Notre Dame schedule; the other three have contractual obligations to fulfill. But there they are.

Army has left the Irish schedule and Southern Cal is soon to go. Does that leave only humpty-dumpties?

Not quite. The point is this: Notre Dame remains the nation's number one football name, in fact as well as in spirit. If Leahy wins, they pack 'em in. If Leahy should have a bad season hundreds of thousands of fans will fight to see somebody beat Notre Dame.

Otto Graham of the Cleveland Browns tossed a record 79 yard pass to Mac Speedie last year.

TICKETS SCARCE TO BADGER-WOLF GAME

Big 9 Title Clash Sold Out Two Weeks.

By The Associated Press

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 13 — "Where can I get a couple of tickets for the Wisconsin-Michigan football game?"

That question has been plaguing acting Gov. Rennebohm of Wisconsin, President E. B. Fred of the University of Wisconsin and the university ticket office.

Apparently every football fan in Wisconsin—and hundreds from other states, too—wants to see undefeated Michigan and Wisconsin tangle in the all-important Big Nine conference game Saturday.

The game has been a 45,000 sellout for more than two weeks. William Aspinwall, who directs the ticket sales, said he could have sold 20,000 more tickets.

The unusual demand for Wisconsin tickets was brought about by the surprising Badger eleven that lifted itself from the doormat team to one of the two leading contenders for the Western conference title.

The Badgers, with three wins and one tie in conference play, are runnerup to the leading Wolverines who have won four league contests. The season ends Nov. 22, with Wisconsin playing Minnesota and Michigan opposing Ohio State. Wisconsin hasn't had a conference championship since 1912.

The largest combined press, radio and photographic coverage of a Badger sports event will be in operation. In addition to some 80 reporters who will cover the game, there will be six newsreel companies, 13 radio outlets and more than two score photographers.

Scalpers have been reported in Madison offering tickets at $100 a pair.

PENN CENTER CHOSEN LINEMAN OF WEEK

Chuck "The Clutch" Bednarik Gets A.P. Nod.

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13 — Chuck "The Clutch" Bednarik, chosen as lineman of the week in The Associated Press poll, has starred in many a coach's dreams this fall—beautiful reveries in the case of Penn mentor George Munger and nightmares for opposing tacticians.

"The Clutch"—220 pounds of fused dynamite out of Bethlehem, Pa.—is a ham-handed octopus on the playing field. His performance at center last Saturday, when Penn turned back previously unbeaten Virginia 19 to 7, was his standout showing of the year.

Twice Bednarik halted Virginia scoring threats on the Penn one yard line and was the key factor in Penn's victory on the admission of both Virginia Coach Art Guepe and Munger.

"I think we would have scored more than twice," said Guepe. "In fact, I feel sure of it—except for one man. That Bednarik! We knew he was good, but we didn't believe any center in the country was that good."

Said Munger:

"Bednarik was no less than terrific. He played one of the finest games I've ever seen. You can't show me a better center."

Lou (The Toe) Groza of the Cleveland Browns last year became the first player ever to lead either major league in scoring without making a touchdown. He kicked a record 45 conversions and a record 13 field goals for 84 points.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Prissy's Got a Man! (Maybe)

Yesterday Sis Martin, our librarian, found an article cut from their file copy of the Clarion. When she compared it with another copy that I gave her she found it was my column on "How to Keep a Husband Happy."

Nothing unusual about that. Except the last person seen reading the paper was Prissy Hoskins (our town's proverbial Old Maid)!

Well, if Prissy has finally got a man, more power to her. And more tolerance to both of them . . . because that's what my column was about: Tolerance of a husband's taste for old hats, old pipes, old friends, and mellow beer. And tolerance on the husband's part of a wife's tastes and habits.

From where I sit, nobody begrudges Prissy taking that clipping from the Clarion. But I'd like to hint that if she'd just subscribe, she'd get my thoughts on tolerance firsthand. And in return I'll treat her to a glass of beer.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13—Wheat rose above the $3.00 mark at the opening on the board of trade today. Lack of moisture over night in the main southwestern winter wheat belt again gave the market a firm undertone.

Wheat started ¼-2¼ higher, December $3.00-3.00½; corn was ¾ lower to ¾ higher, December $2.37-2.38½, and oats were ⅛-1½ higher, December $1.16⅜.

A CALL FOR JUSTICE

Editor of The Star: Answer these three questions.

What has happened to justice in Marion county in regard to the Zora Gerbes murder case?

Why hasn't this case received the same consideration as other cases of Marion county courts?

Why haven't the county commissioners seen fit to appropriate money for a reward to convict and prosecute this murderer?

We intend to call upon the publice for individual support and to sign petitions—also contribtue to this worthy cause.

Plense give this serious consideration.
